

Tricky Spellings List Seven

caught:

to have seized, trapped or taken hold of something (the past tense of catch).

comparative:

measured by comparing two things.

could:

a tense of can which indicates possibility or uncertainty.

embarrass:

to shame or make self-conscious.

February:

the month after January and before March.

guile:

shrewdness or cunning.

liaison:

cooperation between people.

occasion:

an event or specific time.

possible:

able to be achieved.

receive:

to accept or be given.

scissors:

a sharp, double-bladed instrument for cutting.