The Journey to Continuous Cursive: Handwriting Pangrams

A pangram is a sentence that contains every letter of the alphabet at least once.

Read each pangram carefully, trace it three times and then write it independently in your neatest, joined style three times.

The five boxing wizards jumped quickly.
The five boxing wizards jumped quickly.
The five boxing wizards jumped quickly.
The five boxing wizards jumped quickly.

Regent Studies | www.regentstudies.com

The Journey to Continuous Cursive: Handwriting Pangrams

A pangram is a sentence that contains every letter of the alphabet at least once.

Read each pangram carefully, trace it three times and then write it independently in your neatest, joined style three times.

The quick brown fox jumps over the lazy dog.	·
The quick brown fox jumps over the lazy dog.	·
The quick brown fox jumps over the lazy dog.	·
The quick brown fox jumps over the lazy dog.	· ·
	·
	· ·
- Co-

Regent Studies | www.regentstudies.com

The Journey to Continuous Cursive: Handwriting Pangrams

A pangram is a sentence that contains every letter of the alphabet at least once.

Read each pangram carefully, trace it three times and then write it independently in your neatest, joined style three times.

The jay,	pig, fox,	zebra ar	rd my wo	rtves quac	e.
The jay,	pig, fox,	zebra ar	ud my wo	nves quad	e.
The jay,	pig, fox,	zebra ar	ud my wa	ntves quad	e.
The jay,	pig, fox,	zebra ar	ud my wo	ntves quad	e.
					QU	IACK!

Regent Studies | www.regentstudies.com