

Imagine you are one of these workers in ancient Egypt. Write a diary entry about your day and the things you do.

Look at the following ancient Egyptian figures:

Choose one to use as the main character in your writing. Be as creative as you can about what will happen to your chosen figure.

Imagine you are on this boat travelling the Nile in ancient Egypt. Write a letter to your family telling them about life on the boat and the places you have visited.

There were over 2000 gods and goddesses in ancient Egypt. Here are four of the more important gods that were worshipped.

Ma'at was the goddess of truth, justice and harmony and the wife of Thoth.

Sekhmet was the goddess of war, fire and medicine.

Ra was the god of the Sun and the lord of the gods.

These gods and goddesses all represented something specific to the ancient Egyptians. Choose a god or goddess to write a story about and make them the hero of the story.
