

Dialogue Writing

Read the sentences carefully. Then convert each telling sentence into dialogue.

Example: I asked my mum if we could go to the shop.

"Mum, can we go to the shop?" I asked _____

1. My mum wanted to know why I needed to go to the shop.

2. I told her that I needed to buy some flowers.

3. My mum said we could go, but she wondered whom the flowers were for.

4. I excitedly explained that they were for my teacher because her birthday is tomorrow.

5. My mum told me that this was a very nice idea.

6. I told her we should go now because I wanted to have time to pick out the best flowers.

7. My mum laughed and said she would race me to the car.

Dialogue Writing Answers

1. My mum wanted to know why I needed to go to the shop.
“Why do you need to go to the shop?” asked mum.
2. I told her that I needed to buy some flowers.
I replied, “I need to buy some flowers.”
3. My mum said we could go, but she wondered whom the flowers were for.
“We can go,” said Mum, wondering who the flowers were for.
4. I excitedly explained that they were for my teacher because her birthday is tomorrow.
“They’re for my teacher, it’s her birthday tomorrow!” I excitedly explained.
5. My mum told me that this was a very nice idea.
Mum told me, “That’s a very nice idea.”
6. I told her we should go now because I wanted to have time to pick out the best flowers.
“We should go now,” I told Mum. “I want to have time to pick out the best flowers.”
7. My mum laughed and said she would race me to the car.
Mum laughed and said, “I’ll race you to the car.”