Creating Nouns Using -ity Suffix community

curiosity

ability

captivity

activity

sensitivity

possibility

flexibility

visibility

eternity

How have these nouns been formed?

They all have adjective root words with the suffix -ity added, making them into nouns.

Sort the words into the correct place in the table:

community curiosity ability captivity activity sensitivity possibility flexibility visibility eternity

Drop the 'e' or 'al' at end of root word before adding -ity

Drop the 'le' at the end of the root word before adding -ility

Can you spot the word that doesn't fit in this table?

That's right –
'curiosity' is an exception to the rule, so you just need to learn it!
