

Parts of a Sentence

I can identify the subject, verb and object in an active sentence.

I can identify the subject, past participle and preposition phrase in a passive sentence.

You will need three different coloured pens or highlighters.

Active Sentences

Complete the key then underline or highlight these parts of a sentence in the sentences below.

= subject = verb = object

1. Fletcher chomped greedily on the toffee apple.
2. The children threw the bottles into the bin.
3. Darcy disliked the performance of Swan Lake.
4. Steven Beckham scored an amazing goal.

Passive Sentences

Complete the new key then highlight or underline these parts of a sentence in the sentences below.

= subject = past participle = preposition phrase

5. The best flowers were picked by the florist.
6. My garden is being kept tidy by Jim.
7. Tony was surrounded by an angry crowd.
8. Dinner was being served to the guests.

Active Sentences

 = subject  = verb  = object

1. Fletcher chomped greedily on the toffee-apple.
2. The children threw the bottles into the bin.
3. Darcy disliked the performance of Swan Lake.
4. Steven Beckham scored an amazing goal.

Passive Sentences

 = subject  = past participle  = preposition phrase

5. The best flowers were picked by the florist.
6. My garden is being kept tidy by Jim.
7. Tony was surrounded by an angry crowd.
8. Dinner was being served to the guests.