Parts of a Sentence

I can identify the subject, verb and object in an active sentence.

I can identify the subject, past participle and preposition phrase in a passive sentence.

Active Sentences

Complete the key then underline or highlight these parts of a sentence in the sentences below.

- 1. Fletcher chomped greedily on the toffee apple.
- 2. The children threw the bottles into the bin.
- 3. Darcy disliked the performance of Swan Lake.
- 4. Steven Beckham scored an amazing goal.

Passive Sentences

Complete the new key then highlight or underline these parts of a sentence in the sentences below.

- 5. The best flowers were picked by the florist.
- 6. My garden is being kept tidy by Jim.
- 7. Tony was surrounded by an angry crowd.
- 8. Dinner was being served to the guests.

Using the Passive

Active Sentences

- 1. Fletcher champed greedily on the toffee-apple.
- 2. The children threw the bottles into the bin.
- 3. Darcy disliked the performance of Swan Lake.
- 4. Steven Beckham scored an amazing goal.

Passive Sentences

- 5. The best flowers were picked by the florist.
- 6. My garden is being kept tidy by Jim.
- 7. Tony was surrounded by an angry crowd.
- 8. Dinner was being served to the guests.