

Passive Sentence Builder

I can use the passive in my own writing.

Choose a subject, verb and object from each column and use them to create your own passive sentences.

Example: The slug was taken by grandma.

Subject	Verb	Object
dog	walk	book
rugby coach	leave	glasses
actress	take	X-box
grandma	give	toilet paper
doctor	eat	cushion
goblin	stop	blackcurrant
fairy	confront	slug

Passive Sentence Builder

I can use the passive in my own writing.

1. Choose a subject, verb and object from each column and use them to create your own passive sentences. Be as creative as you can adding any extra information, e.g. adjectives.
2. Can you write the active version too?
3. Annotate your sentences to show the different parts.

Example

Object becomes the subject

The normal subject used in a preposition phrase

Passive: The poorly slug was taken to hospital by grandma when she heard it was unwell.

Adjective → Past participle used to form the passive verb → Adverbial phrase

Active: Grandma took the poorly slug to the hospital when she heard it was unwell.

Subject	Verb	Object
dog	walk	book
rugby coach	leave	glasses
actress	take	X-box
grandma	give	toilet paper
doctor	eat	cushion
fairy	confront	slug
