

There - Their They're

A Student-Ready Review Packet

FREE Product

There - Their - They're

1. There -

A. in that place

Ex.: Please sit over there.

I will be there in just a minute.

Own sentence:

B. often begins a sentence, followed by the verb is (was, are, were, etc.)

Ex.: There is one more cookie left on the plate.

There are many classes to choose from in high school.

There was a light on in the old house.

Own sentence:

2. Their - belonging to them (shows ownership)

Ex.: Their car is parked in the driveway.

Their parents will pick them up after school.

Own sentence:

3. They're - they are (contraction)

Ex.: They're planning a trip to Disney World.

I'm not sure if they're going to the party.

Own sentence:

Directions: Write in the correct word: there, their, or they're.

1. The students left _____ books in the classroom.
2. He is sitting right over _____.
3. _____ all going to the school dance tonight.
4. _____ are twenty-six letters in the alphabet.
5. Please wait _____ until I'm ready to see you.
6. _____ telephone has been disconnected.
7. _____ is going to be a storm tonight.
8. Do you know if _____ coming to the movie with us?
9. Some students read _____ poems to the class.
10. _____ were four people waiting for the salesclerk.

Directions: Insert the correct words into the blanks – there, their, or they're.

(1) _____ is a family on our street that must be moving because _____ house is for sale. (2) _____ clearing out _____ garage because _____ going to have a garage sale Saturday.

(3) _____ are several pieces of furniture _____ selling, along with some stereo equipment. (4) I'll probably go over _____ early because _____ is a nice bike _____ planning to sell. (5) _____ will be plenty of people _____, I'm sure. (6) A lot of _____ neighbors will miss them. (7) I hope they like _____ new home, wherever _____ going.

Directions: Create sentences to match each of the following descriptions:

1. use there twice in the same sentence:

2. use they're and their in the same sentence:

3. use they're and there in the same sentence:

Directions: Edit this passage for errors

There are some people who will spend there money carelessly. They buy every CD or video game they're is, without thinking about saving any of there cash. If their parents give them money as allowance or there relatives give them birthday money, they just go shopping and it's all gone. Their are benefits to saving money that people should think about.

FINAL REVIEW: Explain in your own words:

1. When should you use their? _____

2. What does they're stand for? _____

3. When should you use there? (2 answers)

• _____

• _____