

Word Scramble - Answers

1. To communicate with someone's mind.

telepathy

2. I watched my favourite show on this machine last night.

television

3. When you look through one of these, far away objects appear closer.

telescope

4. The spoon disappeared and then reappeared in a different place.

teleport

5. My Mum donated to the broadcast that was raising money for a new hospital.

telethon

6. The power to move things without touching them.

Telekinesis

Dictionary Meanings - Answers

Answers will vary but may include:

1. television
a way to send pictures and sounds through the air over a distance to be seen on a screen.
2. telethon
a television program lasting for several hours, usually to raise money for a charitable cause.
3. telepathy
communication between two or more mind without using words or gestures.
4. telescope
an instrument with a viewing lens that uses mirrors and lenses to make object appear larger.
5. telecast
to broadcast something using television.
6. telekinesis
a power, that cannot be explained, that allows objects to be moved without any physical contact.

Prefixes and Suffixes - Answers

Answers will vary but may include:

1. televise
televises
televised televising
2. teleport
teleports teleported
teleporting
teleporter
3. telecast
telecasts telecasted
telecasting
telecaster