

Superlatives Treasure Hunt

Look around your house and find objects to match the descriptions. Draw them in the boxes and write what they are. During your next class, show your teacher and classmates.

Find the tallest thing in your house. Draw it and write what it is.

_____

Find the heaviest thing in your house. Draw it and write what it is.

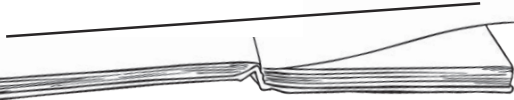

Find the smallest thing in your house. Draw it and write what it is.

Find the most comfortable thing in your house. Draw it and write what it is.

_____

Find the biggest book in your house. Draw it and write what it is.

Find the brightest thing in your house. Draw it and write what it is.

_____

Find the coldest thing in your house (don't touch it). Draw it and write what it is.

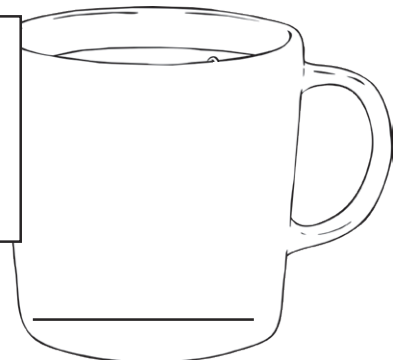

Find the loudest thing in your house. Draw it and write what it is.

_____

Find the softest thing in your house. Draw it and write what it is.

_____

Find the hottest thing in your house (don't touch it). Draw it and write what it is.

Comparatives Treasure Hunt

Look around your house and find objects to match the descriptions. Draw them in the boxes and write what they are. During your next class, show your teacher and classmates.

Find something taller than you.
Draw it and write what it is.

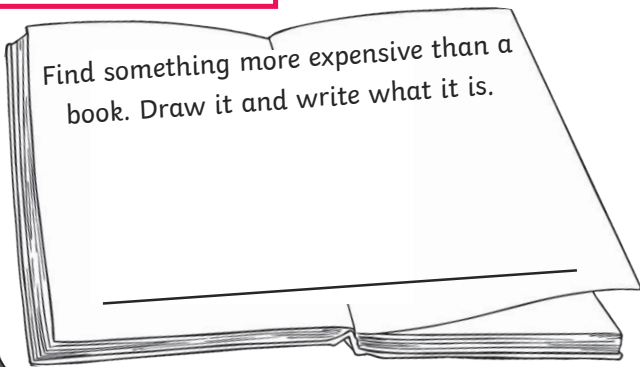

Find something heavier than a chair. Draw it and write what it is.

Find something smaller than a grape.
Draw it and write what it is.

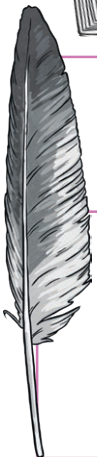

Find something softer than a cushion.
Draw it and write what it is.

Find something more expensive than a book.
Draw it and write what it is.

Find something shorter than a pencil.
Draw it and write what it is.

Find something lighter than a mobile phone.
Draw it and write what it is.

Find something quieter than you.
Draw it and write what it is.

Find something bigger than an armchair.
Draw it and write what it is.

Find something cheaper than a pizza.
Draw it and write what it is.

Question Ideas

Use these questions to ask your classmates about what they drew.

What is that?

Where in your house is it?

How many do you have?

How often do you use this object?

Where did you buy this object?

Is this a special object for you?