Active and Passive Verbs

For each sentence, underline the passive verb. Write the sentence again underneath, adding a person who did it, so they are more important than the action. Two have been done for you as an example. Don't forget to check the tense of your verbs.

e.g. (past tense) The raffle was won at the school fair.

Mrs Jones won the raffle at the school fair.

e.g. (present tense) Tea is grown in India.

Farmers grow tea in India.

1) Unfortunately, our car was stolen from the carpark.

2) At our school, football is played every playtime.

3) The girl with a badly cut finger was given a plaster.

4) Last year, the London Marathon was run on April 26th.

5) My lunch is usually packed in my Star Wars lunch box.

6) The new play park was constructed in only one week!

7) Harry Potter was written between 1997 and 2007.

8) This science display was put up in the corridor.

9) Tigers can only be seen in the wild in Asia.

10) Morning assembly is led every day in the hall.

Now, re-write these active sentences in the passive voice:

11) Pharell Williams sang Happy.

12) Our parents planted the new daffodils.

13) Mr Khan gave us extra playtime.
