

Extra Challenge

I can add and subtract numbers using a formal written method.

Can you think of five different ways you can make the pyramid calculations correct?

