The Dangers of Smoking

Look at the image of the human body and its organs. Think about what you know about the dangers of smoking and how it affects the human body. Cut out the cards that show the effects smoking has on the body and stick them next to the correct organ to label the diagram.

Nicotine causes this organ to    create adrenaline and make a   person feel relaxed.
Chemicals within smoke can cause this organ to look older.
Smoking can cause conditions such as emphysema and cancer in these breathing organs.
When a person smokes, adrenaline causes this organ to work harder to pump more oxygen around the blood stream.  Smoking can cause ulcers, which can cause problems with digestion in this major organ.
Smokers can be in danger of    suffering from a stroke, where this     organs blood supply is cut off.
organ by blocking blood vessels.

	brain
⊢	— — — brain	_	_	$\exists$
⊢ − −		_	_	$\dashv$
⊢	heart — — —	_		4
' 	heart			'
F — —	skin	_	_	٦
⊢ − −	— — — lung	_		$\exists$
⊢ − −		_	_	$\dashv$
L	lungs — — —	_		_
	stomach
L — —		_	_

The Dangers of Smoking Answers

brain

Nicotine causes this organ to create adrenaline and make a person feel relaxed.

brain

Smokers can be in danger of suffering from a stroke, where this organs blood supply is cut off

lungs

Smoking can cause conditions such as emphysema and cancer in these breathing organs.

lungs

Smoking can cause tar to collect in these organs, which causes breathing difficulties.

heart

When a person smokes, adrenaline causes this organ to work harder to pump more oxygen around the blood stream

heart

Carbon monoxide affects this organ by blocking blood vessels.

skin

Chemicals within smoke can cause this organ to look older.

stomach

Smoking can cause ulcers, which can cause problems with digestion in this major organ.

