

Writing Challenges

Which writing challenge will you choose?

Choose a character from the book you are reading and write a detailed description about them. Use a thesaurus to replace five adjectives with more exciting words.	Write three tweets about your day so far. Think about what you have been learning and any challenges you have faced. #reflectivelearner	Write a letter to the headteacher telling them about a positive change you would like to make in the school. Persuade them as to why it is a good idea.	Write a postcard telling someone about the best holiday or trip you have ever been on. Why was it so good?
If you were First Minister of Scotland for the day, what new rules would you make? Write them down.	Do you believe in the Loch Ness Monster? Write down your reasons for your argument and say why you believe it is or isn't real.	Write down five questions you would like to ask a celebrity of your choice.	If you had your own radio show, what would it be called? What would you talk about? Who would you want to listen to it?
Write a letter to your favourite author about a recent book you have read of theirs.	Make a certificate for someone in the class congratulating them on doing something positive.	Write about the funniest thing that has ever happened to you.	Write a list of all your favourite things and tell me why you like them.
Design a writing guide for others. Explain what a good piece of writing needs. Think about grammar, punctuation and spelling.	Write the next chapter of a book you are reading.	Pick a Scottish landmark. Design and write an information leaflet about it that would encourage others to visit.	Think of a fairy tale and rewrite it with a modern twist. Give it to someone to read. Can they guess which story it is?
