

NAME: _____

DATE: _____

COMPLETE OR NOT COMPLETE?

Write "complete" if the sentence is complete. Write "not complete" if the sentence is a fragment, or part of a sentence. Write "run-on" if the sentence is more than one sentence. If the sentence is not complete, rewrite the sentence in order to make it complete.

MONDAY MORNING WORK:

The girls like to play with their toys outside on beautiful mornings.

Joan and her dog love to take walks around the neighborhood.

My dogs and cats.

MONDAY HOMEWORK:

Swimming in the lake on the weekends.

The mountains are amazing the skies are so clear.

I will go to the office and pick up the paper for my teacher.

Five little pumpkins were sitting on the fence.

NAME: _____

DATE: _____

COMPLETE OR NOT COMPLETE?

Write "complete" if the sentence is complete. Write "not complete" if the sentence is a fragment, or part of a sentence. Write "run-on" if the sentence is more than one sentence. If the sentence is not complete, rewrite the sentence in order to make it complete.

TUESDAY MORNING WORK:

The boys with short hair.

Is going to the store to buy some milk and cookies.

Has two brothers and one sister.

The teacher is giving them a test right now the principal is helping her.

TUESDAY HOMEWORK:

Six dogs.

Made so much noise last night.

Found a bracelet on the ground.

Will take the dog to the vet.

NAME: _____

DATE: _____

COMPLETE OR NOT COMPLETE?

Write "complete" if the sentence is complete. Write "not complete" if the sentence is a fragment, or part of a sentence. Write "run-on" if the sentence is more than one sentence. If the sentence is not complete, rewrite the sentence in order to make it complete.

WEDNESDAY MORNING WORK:

My favorite grandmother.

Is late the to party.

Will sing Happy Birthday when she comes.

WEDNESDAY HOMEWORK:

My family is going to the movies on Sunday my brother can't go because he has football.

The big tall basketball players.

Eats ice cream everyday after dinner.

Kimberly likes to ride her bike after school.

NAME: _____

DATE: _____

Write "complete" if the sentence is complete. Write "not complete" if the sentence is a fragment, or part of a sentence. Write "run-on" if the sentence is more than one sentence. If the sentence is not complete, rewrite the sentence in order to make it complete.

THURSDAY MORNING WORK:

My mom drinks coffee in the morning.

Hot coffee in a mug.

My dad's work friends.

Our family went to Montana for our last vacation we went to the Bahamas.

THURSDAY HOMEWORK:

If you sell enough wristbands.

The clock on the wall.

Fighting at the dinner table.

She looks beautiful in that dress.

NAME: _____

DATE: _____

COMPLETE OR NOT COMPLETE?

Write "complete" if the sentence is complete. Write "not complete" if the sentence is a fragment, or part of a sentence. Write run-on if the sentence is more than one sentence. If the sentence is not complete, rewrite the sentence in order to make it complete.

FRIDAY MORNING WORK:

Six people with black shirts.

Luke is the best basketball player I know.

I like to shop with my friends.

She can run as fast as a Cheetah he is also a really fast person.

Now, let's go back and underline all of the subjects once, and the predicates twice!!! Ready, Set, Go!! You can do it.