

Name: _____

Date: _____

Correct these run-on sentences by making them into two separate sentences. Then correct any punctuation, capitalization, and spelling errors in the sentences.

1) i went to the store with my mom and my dad then we went to the movies and after that we got ice-cream and went home.

2) Jordan and Amy went to the parc after school then they went to get pizza from pizza hut after that they rode their bikes home.

3) The teacher said if we complete the homework by friday we would get a special surprise so we all worked hard and finished the homework and we got the surprise and we were so happy when we found out it was a pizza party.

4) if the Pottstown footbal team wins the game on Friday the Stewartville football team will not move on to the state championship game and they'll have to wait till next year to try again but maybe the Stewartville football team will win.

5) Gavin and alisha like to play checkers and Monopoly but they don't like playing Bingo and Chess, although they are both very good at those games they still prefer to play Checkers and sometimes Gavin and Alisha play Uno with their other friends from school.

Answer Key

- 1) I went to the store with my mom and my dad then we went to the movies. After the movies, we got ice-cream and went home.
- 2) Jordan and Amy went to the park after school then they went to get pizza from Pizza Hut. After they got pizza they rode their bikes home.
- 3) The teacher said if we complete the homework by Friday we would get a special surprise so we all worked hard and finished the homework. We got the surprise and we were so happy when we found out it was a pizza party.
- 4) If the Pottstown football team wins the game on Friday the Stewartville football team will not move on to the state championship game and they'll have to wait till next year to try again but maybe the Stewartville football team will win.
- 5) Gavin and Alisha like to play checkers and Monopoly but they don't like playing Bingo and Chess, although they are both very good at those games they still prefer to play Checkers. Sometimes, Gavin and Alisha play Uno with their other friends from school.