Subject-
Verb-
Object

Aim

- We are learning to understand how subject-verb-object sentences are constructed so that we can write sentences correctly.

Success Criteria

- I will know I am successful when I have made a range of different, simple sentences using my knowledge of subject-verb-object.

What is Subject-Verb-Object?

When writing a complete sentence we want to make sure we include a beginning, a middle and an end to each sentence.

This makes a complete sentence.

beginning - the subject

middle - the verb

end - object

Subject-Verb-Object?

The subject tells us who or what the sentence is about.

The verb tells us what happened.

The object tells us what is affected by the verb.

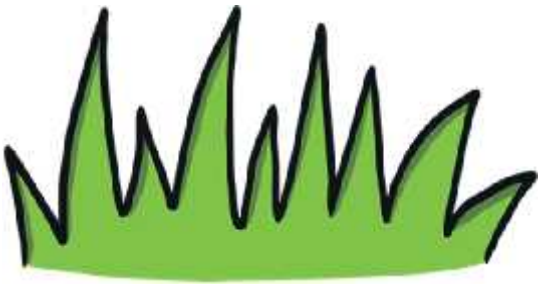
The kangaroo

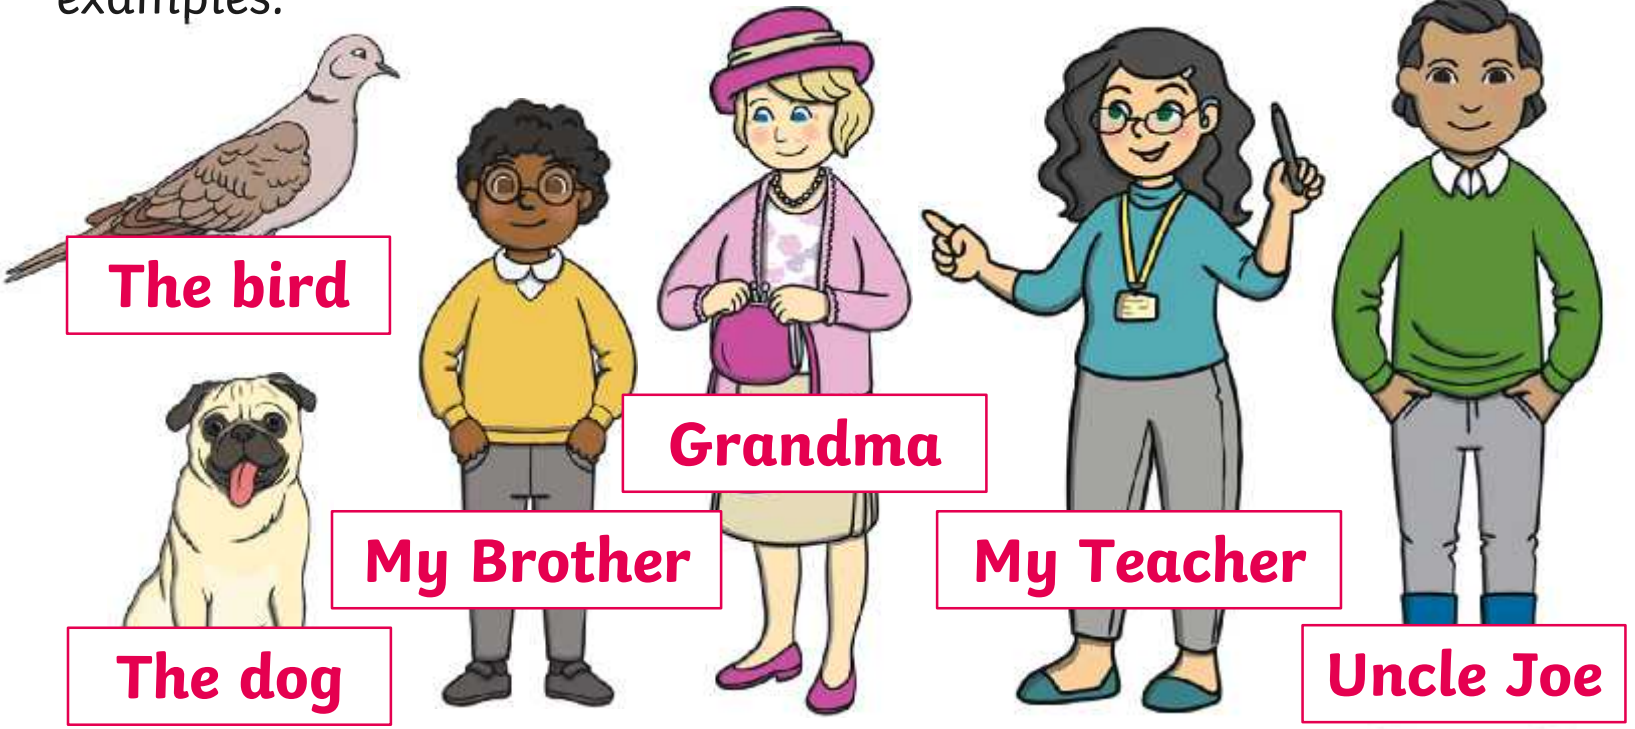
ate



grass

What words can I use for the subject?

Lots of things can be the subject of a sentence. Here are some fun examples:



Can you think of any other people of things we could use as the subject of our sentence to tell us who the sentence is about?

What words can I use for the verb?

Lots of things can be the verb in a sentence. Here are some examples:

jumped

read

cooks

ate

tasted

likes

Can you think of any other words we could use for the verb of our sentence to tell what happened?

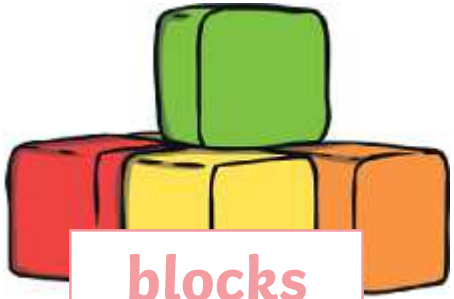
What words can I use for the object?

Lots of things can be the object in a sentence. Here are some examples:

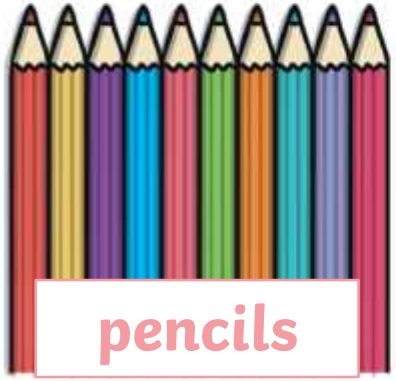
a hat

a book

cake



blocks



pencils

trucks

Can you think of any other words we could use for the object of our sentence to tell what was affected by the verb?
