

Name: _____

Identifying Personal Pronouns:

words that take the place of one or more nouns and refer to people or things.

Subject
I	You(s)	He	You(p)
She	It	We	They

Object
Me	You(s)	Us	You(p)
Him	Her	It	Them

Directions: The personal pronoun is underlined; label it as either a subject (S) or object (O) pronoun above the word. If it is a subject pronoun, identify it as either the subject or predicate pronoun by writing it on the line. If it is an object pronoun, identify it as either a direct object or an indirect object by writing it on the line.

O

Ex.: The waiter gave her the menu.

Indirect Object

1. I brought him the book.
2. We sent them a letter.
3. The girl on the bus was you!
4. She prefers hiking over movie.
5. I think you enjoy studying.
6. The plate shattered when John dropped it.
7. Be careful; he lied to us before.
8. They put ketchup on everything!
9. I think she likes him!
10. The spider bit her on the ankle.

Name: _____

Possessive Pronouns:

take the place of possessive nouns; show who or what has something.

	Singular	Plural
Used before nouns	my your her, his, its	our your their
Used alone	mine yours hers, his, its	ours yours theirs

Directions: Rewrite the following sentences with the correct possessive pronoun replacing the underlined possessive noun. Refer to the chart to make sure you use the correct form.

Ex. Lisa's class put on a play.

Her class put on a play.

1. Suzy lost Stacy's watch.

2. Billy likes cream cheese on Billy's bagels.

3. Charles and Bonnie's grandfather used to take them fishing.

4. Where are Billy's hockey skates?

5. The drone's popularity is growing.

6. My dog is staying at Dirk and Nancy's house.
