

Name: _____

Possessive Pronouns Practice

Directions: Fill in the blanks with the correct possessive pronoun.

Remember: A possessive pronoun shows ownership! They include my, our, your, his, her, its, and their when they are combined with a noun and mine, ours, yours, his, hers, its, and theirs when the noun is implied..

1. Diego's mom had a secret cupcake recipe. It was only _____.
2. She had learned it from _____ dad who had learned it from _____ mother.
3. She would bake _____ family cupcakes on the first day of their winter break.
4. Every year Diego and his sister would wake up to the smell of delicious baking and run into the kitchen to grab _____ first winter cupcakes.
5. Eating the cupcakes for breakfast was _____ special treat!
6. Arianna, Diego's little sister, loved the blue cupcake so he would always pick that one out first and say that it was _____.
7. "No fair! That one is _____!" She always yelled as she crossed her arms.
8. Diego would always pretend he was going to take a huge bite out of the cupcake before laughing and handing it to her. Then he'd say, "Okay, I guess this one is _____."
9. But this year there were no cupcakes when Diego and Arianna walked into the kitchen. Arianna cried "Mom forgot to make _____ cupcakes!!!"
10. "No, I didn't," a voice came from behind them. Diego knew it belonged to _____ mom.
11. They turned around to see their mom waiting with two mixing bowls filled with ingredients in _____ hands.
12. "These are _____," she said, as she handed them to Diego and Arianna.
13. "It's time that you learn my secret recipe so it becomes _____ secret recipe! We're going to bake them together from now on!" she explained.
14. And that was how Diego's family created a new tradition that was just _____.

Name: _____

Possessive Pronouns Practice

Directions: Fill in the blanks with the correct possessive pronoun.

Remember: A possessive pronoun shows ownership! They include my, our, your, his, her, its, and their when they are combined with a noun and mine, ours, yours, his, hers, its, and theirs when the noun is implied..

1. Diego's mom had a secret cupcake recipe. It was only hers.
2. She had learned it from her dad who had learned it from his mother.
3. She would bake her family cupcakes on the first day of their winter break.
4. Every year Diego and his sister would wake up to the smell of delicious baking and run into the kitchen to grab their first winter cupcakes.
5. Eating the cupcakes for breakfast was their special treat!
6. Arianna, Diego's little sister, loved the blue cupcake so he would always pick that one out first and say that it was his.
7. "No fair! That one is mine!" She always yelled as she crossed her arms.
8. Diego would always pretend he was going to take a huge bite out of the cupcake before laughing and handing it to her. Then he'd say, "Okay, I guess this one is yours."
9. But this year there were no cupcakes when Diego and Arianna walked into the kitchen. Arianna cried "Mom forgot to make our cupcakes!!!"
10. "No, I didn't," a voice came from behind them. Diego knew it belonged to his mom.
11. They turned around to see their mom waiting with two mixing bowls filled with ingredients in her hands.
12. "These are yours," she said, as she handed them to Diego and Arianna.
13. "It's time that you learn my secret recipe so it becomes our secret recipe! We're going to bake them together from now on!" she explained.
14. And that was how Diego's family created a new tradition that was just theirs.