

Comma Guide and worksheet

Use commas to separate words and word groups in a simple series of 3 or more items.

For example— While we were at the market, Kate and I bought grapes, apples, milk, eggs, bread, cookies and water.

Use commas when listing adjectives.

For example—I was glad to not have left the house on the cold, snowy day.

Use commas after an introduction to a sentence or a transition word.

For example—Why, yes! I would love to come to your party!

Now you try.

Look at the following sentences and insert commas where they need to be.

Mom Grandpa Uncle Tony Adriana and Juliet were all sitting at the dining room table.

Can you please buy sugar flour eggs and vanilla when you go to the store?

Hello Mrs Smith. Is Katie there?

The sweater she made me wear was ugly itchy and too tight.

The music at the concert was loud fast and exciting.
