

Personal and Possessive Pronouns

We use nouns to name things. However, if we use the same nouns too much, our writing becomes awkward and lacks cohesion. To avoid this happening, we can use pronouns.

There are personal and possessive pronouns.

Personal pronouns

Personal pronouns replace the names of people or things. They can take the form of 'singular' pronouns – just one person or thing. They can also take the form of 'plural' pronouns – more than one person or thing.

Singular	I	me	you	they	them	she	her	he	him	it
Plural	we	us	you	they	them

Possessive pronouns

Possessive pronouns replace the people or things that have or own something. They can also take the form of singular and plural, i.e. just one or more than one.

Singular	mine	yours		hers	his	its
Plural	ours	yours	theirs
