

Unusual Laws Around The World

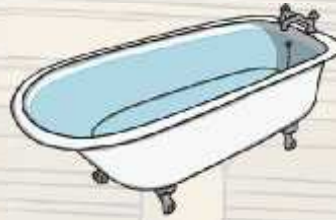

True or False?

Note: Laws that are true are not necessarily enforced!

New Vocabulary

seatbelt

bathtub

hiking

camouflage

suit of armour

licence plate

True or False?

Radio stations in Canada have to play Canadian music at least 35% of the time.

True

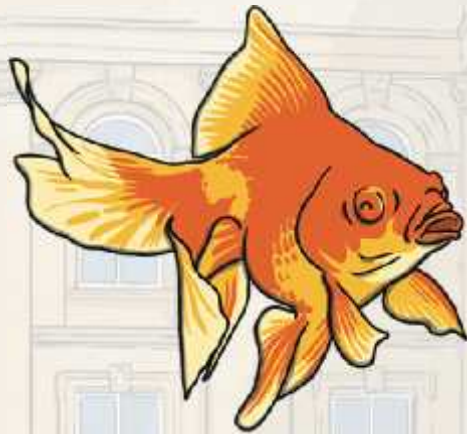

False

Canada

True or False?

If you have a pet fish in Rome, you have to give it a name that starts with 'p'.

True

False

Rome

True or False?

In Scotland, if someone knocks on your door because they need the toilet, you have to let them in.

True

False

Scotland

True or False?

In Denmark, you can only give a baby a name from a list made by the government.

True

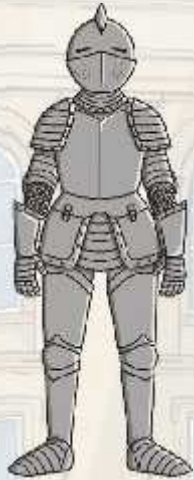

False

Denmark

True or False?

In England, you can wear a suit of armour anywhere in the country.

True

False

England

You can't wear a suit of armour in the Houses of Parliament.

True or False?

In Florida, you can fart in a public place any time except after 6 p.m. on Thursdays. On Thursdays after 6 p.m., you can't fart in a public place.

True

False

Florida

True or False?

In Ohio, you don't have to have a licence plate on the front of your car.

True

False

Ohio

True or False?

If you're hiking in Switzerland, you don't have to wear clothes!

True

False

Switzerland

True or False?

If you're from Ireland but living in England, you don't have to wear a school uniform on Fridays.

True

False

England

True or False?

You can't wear camouflage clothes in many countries in the Caribbean.

True

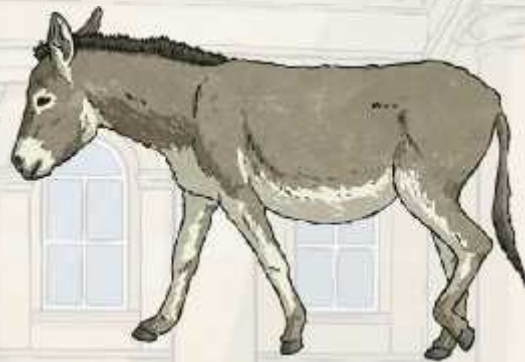

False

Caribbean

True or False?

In Arizona, you can't have a sleeping donkey in your bathtub after 7 p.m.

True

False

Arizona

True or False?

You can't ride a motorbike in the city after 9 p.m. on a Sunday in Germany.

True

False

Germany

Match the phrase to the meaning.

They have to play Canadian music.

You can fart in a public place.

You don't have to wear a school uniform.

You can't have a donkey in your bathtub.

Permission.

It's forbidden / no permission.

An obligation. It's necessary.

No obligation. It's not necessary.

Extra questions

- What form of the verb are we using after these modal verbs?
- Can you make these statements into questions and short answers?
- Can you think of a word that means the same as 'have to'?
- Can you think of a word that means the same as 'can'?

Complete the phrase with the correct option.

You can use the options more than once.

have to

can can't don't have to do

don't

1. [] you have to wear a seat belt in the car?" "Yes, you []
2. We [] pay to swim in the pool. It's free.
3. You [] have some more cake if you want to.
4. You [] feed the lions your sandwich! It's dangerous!
5. [] we go to the park this afternoon?" "No, we []
6. You [] bring anything to the party. We already have everything.
7. You [] wear jeans to the wedding. You [] wear a suit.
8. There's some homework, but it's optional. You [] do it.
9. [] I drink the water?" "No, you [] It's not safe."
10. "Where [] eat my lunch?" "You [] eat it in the cafeteria."

Make your own game!

Make some sentences about these places. Your classmates will guess if they are true or false.

- a library
- an airport
- a school
- a train
- a cinema
- a supermarket
- a swimming pool

You can't eat a cheese sandwich in a swimming pool.

That's true!

You don't have to have a ticket for the train.

That's false!

