

Grammar Practice Exercise 1: Subject–Verb Agreement 1

Name: _____

Date: _____

Directions: When you edit your writing, check it for grammatical errors. Be sure to use a singular verb if you use a singular subject and to use a plural verb if you use a plural subject.

Read the sentences below. Some subjects and verbs agree and some do not. If the underlined verb agrees with its subject, write Correct on the line below. If it does not, rewrite the sentences. The first one is done for you.

1. Lucinda want to go bowling tomorrow night.

Revision: Lucinda wants to go bowling tomorrow night. _____

2. My friends likes to play soccer at the city park.

3. Sham and Peter has borrowed books from the school library.

4. The dog or the cat has chewed up my father's shoes.

5. Before you leave, shuts the door.

6. Bananas and papayas is my favorite fruit.

7. The CD that I bought for my sisters are in the kitchen.

8. Dui has moved to a new neighborhood, and we miss him.

9. Chaka always stare at the kittens in the window of the pet store.

10. When Bea looks out the window, she see her grandmother getting out of the car.

11. The teachers meets every Friday after school.

12. Pietro or Sharee have the best chance of winning the spelling bee.

13. Kites and balloons fill the sky with color.

14. The school librarian, whose name is Dr. DeLucca, ride her bike to school every day.

15. Once the train leaves the station, he walk across the bridge.

Grammar Practice Exercise 2: Subject–Verb Agreement 2

Name: _____

Date: _____

Directions: When you edit your writing, check it for grammatical errors. Be sure to use a singular verb if you use a singular subject and to use a plural verb if you use a plural subject.

Read the sentences below. Some subjects and verbs agree and some do not. If the underlined verb agrees with its subject, write Correct on the line below. If it does not, rewrite the sentences. The first one is done for you.

1. The Kinney family bring the games.

Revision: The Kinney family brings the games. _____

2. My best friend and I take walks in the forest.

3. My cousin, who is visiting from Washington, like to swim.

4. I talks on my phone too much when I do my homework.

5. Ming Na, my best friend, play soccer.

6. When you make the pasta, be sure to doubled the recipe.

7. One of the students are giving the speech.

8. My skateboard, not yours, is on the back porch.

9. The big branch with red leaves sway in the breeze.

10. Does Becca or Samuel secretly eats cookies in bed?

11. The red lollipop in the jar and the blue lollipop on my desk are for you.

12. The one person out of all the players who could pitch the whole game is not here today.

13. The blue house on the corner were built in 1955.

14. Each morning, Maya quickly and quietly get ready for school.

15. Both my shirt and my shorts, the ones for my band uniform, was lost when my bag was stolen.
