

Belief

Actors completely immerse themselves in their role; imagining, thinking, behaving and speaking like someone in a real situation.

Time

The time of day, year, period or moment that the action takes place.

Role and character

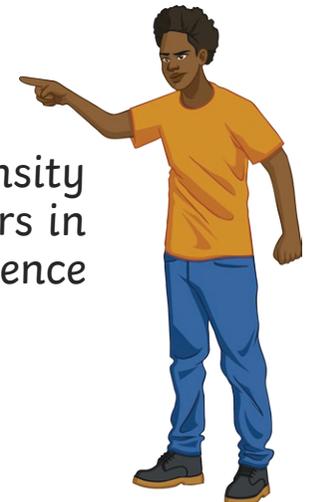

The identity of the person played by the actors.

Tension

The pressure or intensity given off by the actors in role to keep the audience engaged.

Action

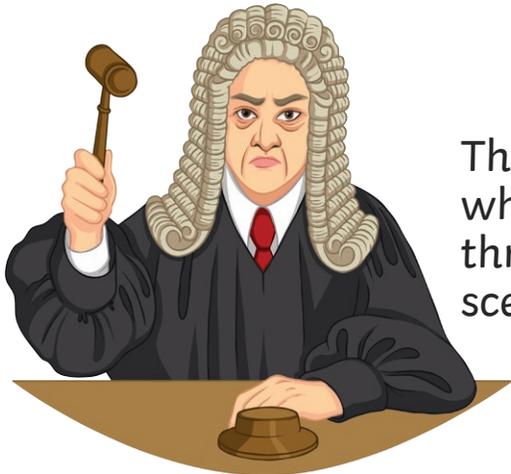

The event or events the characters take part in.

Significance

The impact that one actor has on an event or other character which requires them to use their voice and body language to show their reaction and emotions.

Place

The location of the event which can be shown through costume, stage scenery and props.

Genre

The different styles of performances.