

Name: _____ Date: _____

Sentence Fragment REVIEW FOR THE QUIZ!

Label these sentences as fragments (F), run-ons (R), or correct sentences (C).

- _____ 1. India has a very large population and needs land for farming.
- _____ 2. An angry elephant can cause a lot of damage it is a very large animal.
- _____ 3. I jump rope daily my current record is 45 minutes.
- _____ 4. To see Winter do well was great, to see him have fun was even better.
- _____ 5. We had a picnic in the park the food attracted many bees.
- _____ 6. Trying to improve our scores, we have been practicing grammar daily.
- _____ 7. We have been practicing grammar daily. Trying to improve our test scores.
- _____ 8. Moms and dads are often misunderstood. Just like teachers.

Name the four basic ways to fix a run-on:

- 1. _____
- 2. _____
- 3. _____
- 4. _____

Using the comma rule you have discussed in class, decide if the following sentences need commas. If a comma is needed, put it in the correct place. If a comma is not needed, simply write “correct” next to the sentence.

- 1. The crocodile is hunting it will search for frogs.
- 2. The bear s tired it will sleep now.
- 3. Bear climb trees like cats they sink their claws into the bark.
- 4. In 1987 Boston completed the first subway system.