SUBJECT Conversation with Dallas Deputy City Manager Kimberly Bizer Tolbert Regarding the Importance of Community Engagement

Several key stakeholders in police oversight in the City of Dallas were asked to join the Board for conversations and strategy discussions at their 2023 Annual Retreat that was held on January 28, 2023. One of the invited guests was Dallas Deputy City Manager Kimberly Bizer Tolbert. Unfortunately, due to a scheduling conflict, DCM Bizer Tolbert was not able to attend the 2023 Annual CPOB Retreat.

At the January 10, 2023, monthly CPOB meeting, the Board decided to have a working session which would be an extension of their annual retreat. The Board also decided to request participation from the key stakeholders that could not make the January 28th retreat. Therefore, OCPO Director McClary sent an invitation to DCM Bizer Tolbert to attend the March 14th meeting.

The Board Chair will kick off the conversation with DCM Bizer Tolbert and then there will be a time for open dialogue with DCM Bizer Tolbert and other CPOB members. The desired outcome of the conversation is for the Board to learn and embrace the importance of community engagement for the CPOB. The Ordinance that created the CPOB requires its members to be engaged with the community.

CPOB Chairman Jesuorobo Enobakhare, Jr. will facilitate the discussion.

SUBJECT UPDATE: CPOB Annual Report

At the February 14, 2023, CPOB meeting, Annual Report Ad Hoc Committee Chairman Alan Marshall lead a discussion about the CPOB Annual Report. He went over the recommendations that the Ad Hoc Committee developed at its meeting regarding the content of the CPOB annual report.

CPOB Chairman Enobakhare, Jr. also discussed the recommended format that the City of Dallas developed for annual Boards and Commissions reports. The template was given to the Board by OCPO Director McClary.

At the end of both discussions CPOB Chairman Enobakhare, Jr. asked the Board for a motion to accept the recommendations of the CPOB Annual Report Ad Hoc Committee and adopt the format recommended by the city. A motion was made and properly seconded. The motion passed by a unanimous vote.

During the discussion, the question of how the multiple-year format would be accomplished came up. The CPOB would like annual reports produced for 2020, 2021, and 2022. Director McClary stated that she was not sure if all three years could be produced as one report. However, she told the Board she would inquire about this and report back to them at their March meeting. Director McClary was able to connect with the City of Dallas Boards and Commissions office and learned that it would be okay for the CPOB to produce a multi-year annual report.

Based on this information, Director McClary shared it with the Annual Report Ad Hoc Committee. That committee will convene a meeting to discuss a reasonable timeline for completion of the multi-year report after the CPOB March 14th meeting and report back to the full CPOB at the April meeting.

There is a page of the Annual report for FY 2023 Proposed Objectives and Accomplishments. CPOB Chairman tabled this discussion until the March meeting to give Board members a chance to think about this. He will share with the Board his thoughts and then open the conversation up for CPOB members impute.

As a reminder, the members of the Annual Report Ad Hoc Committee are:

1. Alan Marshall---Chair
2. Jesuorobo Enobakhare, Jr.
3. Brandon Friedman

At the February 14, 2023, meeting CPOB member Deatra Wadsworth alerted the Board that their November 14, 2023, is scheduled at the same time as the annual NACOLE conference. Because some CPOB members and OCPO staff will be attending the NACOLE conference she asked if the Chair would place an item on the March 14, 2023, agenda to discuss changing the date of the November 2023 CPOB meeting.

Chairman Enobakhare, Jr, agreed to have this placed on the agenda for the March 2023 meeting.

The alternative Tuesdays in November are:

- November 7th (Election Day)
- November 21st
- November 28th

OCPO Director McClary alerted the City's scheduling department about a potential change in the date for CPOB November 2023 meeting to see if any rooms in City Hall were available for the alternative Tuesdays in November 2023.

Unfortunately, the scheduling department is not reserving rooms for November 2023 dates until September 2023. Therefore, if the Board decides to change the date of their November 2023 meeting, the room location in City Hall will not be confirmed until September 2023.

SUBJECT REPORT: CPOB Website, Headshots, Emails and Business Cards

CPOB Website:

At the February 14, 2023 meeting OCPO Director McClary let the Board know that their revamped website would be ready sometime in March.

She is excited to let the Board know that the revised website is up and running.

There are several updates that need to be made such as changing some of the descriptions of the Board on the site and adding Board members pictures, etc. Those kinds of edits will be taking place in the coming weeks as Director McClary works with the Boards and Commissions office to get the website fully updated.

Below is a link to the CPOB website. Director McClary encourages CPOB members to review the website and send her any feedback they have.

<https://dallascityhall.com/government/Boards-and-Commissions/Community-Police-Oversight-Board/Pages/default.aspx>

Director McClary will give Board members a preview of the website at the March 14th meeting.

CPOB Members Headshots:

The revised website will have headshots for each Board member. If you have a headshot that you like and it is high resolution, please send it to Director McClary.

If any Board members need a headshot, Director McClary will work with the Communications Department to arrange for them to take professional headshots. Please reach out to her and let her know.

CPOB Members Emails:

Several Board members have asked if it is possible to get a city email address. Well Director McClary, has good news. The City's Boards and Commissions office is currently working with ITS on providing emails to B&C members. There will be an official process to get that email in the coming weeks.

CPOB Members Business Cards:

If any CPOB members want business cards, please let Director McClary know. She will get them produced with information you agreed to make public when you accepted the position to be on the Board. The order will be for 250 or 500 business cards. You can let director McClary know what quantity you would like.

Normally business cards can be produced within 1-2 weeks of the requests. However, it probably makes sense to wait on ordering them until you get your city email.

SUBJECT UPDATE: OCPO Policy Review DPD Protests and Use of Force

At the February 14, 2023, CPOB meeting OCPO Director McClary presented to the Board a proposed deadline to get the review of the DPD protests and use of force policies completed. She also let the Board know if the timeline needed to be adjusted, she would alert them.

Based on some unforeseen circumstances the timeline does need to be updated. See updates below:

March

1. Recruit law students. Director McClary is working with UNT Law School to recruit students to finish the research.
2. Reach out to DPD to get formal responses regarding suggested policy changes that were identified in the After Report issued by the department.

April

1. Law students conduct and complete research on current policies and best practices.
2. Interviews with members of DPD regarding the research and current practices.
3. Report written on findings.

May

1. Findings and recommendations presented to the CPOB at the May 16th meeting.

If it looks like getting law student support is not going to happen, Director McClary is going to review the OCPO budget to determine if there is funding to get some consultant help to complete this project.

If the timeline needs to shift any further, Director McClary will let the Board know.
