

Summary of Deposition-Transcript-Example-1.pdf

Citation	Summary of Testimony	Topic Summary
4:1-6:17	The deponent, , was sworn in and began her direct examination by Mr. Denmon, counsel for the respondent. She confirmed her current employment with Hilton Worldwide Reservations as a reservations specialist, working from home for $9 an hour, 20 hours a week. Prior to this, she worked at Cracker Country for a short period and was a stay-at-home mom for eight years. Before her time as a stay-at-home mom, she worked as an echo tech for Sibley Heart Cardiology at Egleston Hospital in Atlanta, Georgia.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Current employment and role at Hilton Worldwide Reservations - Previous employment at Cracker Country - Employment history before becoming a stay-at-home mom
7:8-9:23	The deponent discussed their employment history, including working at Cracker Country, being a stay-at-home mom, and previous positions in echocardiography at Sibley Heart Cardiology and St. Mary's Health Care System. They detailed their work experience, training, and the process required to re-enter their field, including renewing their license and attending conferences.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Employment history - Echocardiography experience and training - License renewal process
9:24-9:25	The deponent explained the reasons for attending interviews despite their license being expired and the circumstances leading to the expiration of their license, including a change in renewal dates and a missed notification due to moving.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - License expiration and renewal challenges - Job interview process despite expired license
10:1-11:17	The deponent discusses the circumstances leading to potential job loss due to a burglary that resulted in the theft of computer equipment, impacting their ability to work from home for Hilton. They detail the technical inadequacies of their current computer and the company's downtime policy.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Job security concerns due to burglary - Technical challenges with current computer equipment - Hilton's downtime policy
11:18-12:17	The deponent outlines their work schedule requirements with Hilton, including minimum and maximum hours, and the specific hours they must work. They also begin to discuss their current medications.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Work schedule requirements - Medication for health conditions
12:18-13:1	The deponent continues detailing their medication regimen, explaining the purposes of each medication, including those for dopamine production, sleep, and counteracting side effects.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Medication regimen - Health and treatment details
13:20-15:11	The deponent discusses their personal use of migraine medication Topamax, taken once daily. They also mention their counselor, whom they have been seeing for over two years, initially in conjunction with couples therapy. The sessions are weekly, for about an hour, and have been consistent except for occasional scheduling conflicts. The counselor has waived the cost of the deductible for the last two years.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Migraine medication usage - Counseling history and frequency - Financial arrangements with the counselor

15:12-16:19	The deponent talks about their children's counseling. The 6-year-old started three weeks ago, and the 8-year-old three months ago, with Ms. . Before Ms. , they had informal counseling at Bell Shoals Baptist Church. The deponent is unsure of the exact name of the practice where Ms. works but mentions it is associated with a main psychiatrist, Dr. .	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Children's counseling history - Transition from informal to formal counseling - Details about the children's current counselor
17:11-19:24	The deponent discussed why their child started seeing a counselor in November, attributing it to anger issues and fits of rage following the announcement of a divorce. The child's difficulties were further exacerbated by a contentious custody situation, leading to nightmares, clinginess, and acting out. The deponent also mentioned harassment and coercion from the child's father and his brother-in-law regarding custody battles, which they believe contributed to the child's distress.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Child's counseling and reasons behind it - Impact of divorce announcement on child - Child's reaction to custody situation - Allegations of harassment and coercion by child's father and his relative
20:14-23:19	The deponent discusses the financial support provided by their mother, Ms. , including the specifics of their living arrangements and financial contributions at various residences. The deponent lived with their two children, and at different times, their mother and a friend in need. The testimony covers the deponent's moves from a friend's house in Seffner to their mother's condo, then to Partridge Point Trail, and finally to their current residence in Valrico.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Financial support from the deponent's mother - Living arrangements and contributions at various residences - Assistance provided to a friend in an abusive situation
24:1-26:16	The deponent discussed living arrangements and financial assistance received from various individuals, including rent arrangements with a friend during a divorce, loans from family and friends, and assistance from a church elder.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Living arrangements and rent - Financial loans from family and friends - Assistance from a church
26:17-27:16	The testimony covered financial support for housing, the deponent's access to 401K funds for rent, current psychiatric treatment, and previous mental health care.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Financial support for housing - Access to 401K for rent - Current and previous psychiatric treatment
28:7-31:1	The deponent discussed their mental and physical health history, including treatment by various psychiatrists and a neurologist for mental health issues, and a diagnosis of severe endometriosis leading to a recommendation for a complete hysterectomy. Financial constraints and insurance coverage details were also discussed, including plans to proceed with the hysterectomy due to a deductible being covered by a third party, leaving the deponent responsible for a 15% copay. Additionally, the deponent mentioned having two broken teeth but lacking the funds to pay for their repair.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Mental health treatment history - Physical health issues, specifically severe endometriosis - Financial constraints affecting healthcare decisions - Insurance coverage and copays - Planned hysterectomy and reasons for delay - Dental health issues
31:20-32:6	The deponent discusses their health issues, including severe endometriosis and two broken teeth, one of which was caused by an anesthesiologist during surgery. They mention the financial burden of dental repairs, costing $545 per crown, which they cannot afford despite having insurance.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Health issues (endometriosis, broken teeth) - Financial burden of medical expenses - Insurance coverage

32:10-33:24	The deponent explains the breakdown of their marriage, citing discovery of over 1200 pornographic images and videos on their spouse's computer as the final straw leading to separation. They also mention moving back to Florida from Georgia due to seasonal depression.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Breakdown of marriage - Discovery of pornography - Relocation due to seasonal depression
33:25-34:9	The deponent discusses their need for rehabilitative alimony to support themselves and their child, as they cannot live off child support alone. They are seeking alimony to cover the period until they can return to work, the duration of which is uncertain.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Need for rehabilitative alimony - Financial support for child - Return to work plans
35:2-36:25	The deponent discusses seeking alimony until employment is found, mentioning unpaid child support and alimony. The relationship history, including moving to Georgia for work, is outlined. The back child support amount is discussed, with a figure around $21,000-$22,000 mentioned.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Alimony and employment - Unpaid child support and alimony - Relationship and relocation history - Back child support amount
37:1-38:25	The deponent talks about the handling of tax returns from 2011, stating they were deposited into a joint account and used to pay off family bills and debt. The future of the marital home in Georgia is discussed, with options including being bought out or selling it. The deponent refutes the claim that $13,000 of nonmarital money was put into the home, stating it was marital money used to pay off the spouse's debt.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Handling of tax returns - Use of tax return money - Marital home disposition - Marital vs. nonmarital money in home purchase - Debt payment within the marriage
38:19-40:25	The deponent discussed a significant debt incurred due to the respondent's pre-existing financial obligations and an elective surgery, which was later clarified as life-saving surgery, paid for by withdrawing from the deponent's 401K. The surgery was necessary due to complications from a previous gastric bypass surgery. The deponent seeks a division of the respondent's 401K through a QDRO (Qualified Domestic Relations Order) in the divorce settlement.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Financial debt and responsibilities within the marriage - Elective surgery clarified as life-saving surgery - Use of 401K funds for medical expenses - Request for division of respondent's 401K
41:1-41:5	The deponent elaborates on the medical necessity of the surgery, detailing the discovery and repair of significant internal complications by Dr. , who was sought after experiencing symptoms post-initial gastric bypass surgery.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Medical complications from previous surgery - Discovery and repair of complications by Dr. - Referral to and consultation with a specialist for surgery
41:1-42:3	The deponent discussed a medical issue related to a botched gastric bypass surgery, including a hernia and the need for corrective surgery. They mentioned moving and no longer being treated by the same doctor, with no further issues in the stomach region since.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Medical issues and surgery - Change of residence - Current health status
42:4-43:7	Discussion about the division of a pension in a divorce, with the deponent expressing openness to discussing alternative distributions of assets instead of waiting for the pension to be paid out in the future.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Pension division - Future financial planning - Asset distribution in divorce

43:8-44:16	The deponent talked about handling finances during the marriage, including a shift in responsibility due to the spouse's uncontrollable spending. They also touched on the decision to move to Alaska for financial reasons, which was also suggested to isolate the deponent from friends.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Financial management in marriage - Spending habits - Relocation motives - Separation circumstances
45:7-46:25	The deponent testified about the financial situation during and after their separation, including the accumulation of credit card debt from $10,000 to $40,000 and the filing of financial affidavits.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Financial situation post-separation - Credit card debt - Financial affidavits
47:1-48:1	The deponent discussed changes in their financial situation, including lower rent but increased expenses such as car insurance and children's extracurricular activities.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Changes in financial situation - Increased expenses - Children's extracurricular activities
48:18-49:25	The deponent discusses family expenses, including a YMCA membership with financial assistance, potential gymnastic lessons, and details about car loans. They also mention financial affidavits, detailing loans from 2011 and credit card balances.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Family expenses - Financial assistance - Car loans - Financial affidavits - Credit card balances
50:1-51:13	The testimony covers the children's education, including the choice of Foundation Christian Academy for stability and its affiliation with their church. It also touches on tuition assistance received and the initial high cost of rent for their first house.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Children's education - Tuition assistance - Choice of school - Rent costs
51:14-52:1	The deposition concludes with a brief discussion about attorney's fees and the certification of the deponent's oath.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Conclusion of deposition - Attorney's fees - Certification of oath