Thank you for reading this!

Hi, I'm Hilary! Thank you so much for taking the time to learn about me. While this must be a difficult decision for you, I think your courage, your selflessness, and your love for your child are amazing. Your decision would also be the most generous and transformative gift for someone like me, who has always dreamed of being a mom and devoting my life to a child.

I hope that my words help you get to know me and envision the loving mom I would be to your child. I would love to learn more about you, talk about your hopes and goals for your child, and figure out how you and I can make them come true. If you do choose me, please know that I look forward to being by your side every step of the way, and that I will love your child unconditionally.

I absolutely love children and am completely ready – emotionally, financially, and logistically – to make your child the center of my world! I have an amazing and supportive network of friends and family all around, too.

My lifelong dream has been to become a mom! I will be so grateful to you if you help this dream come true.

My top priority right now is becoming a mom, and providing your child with the best life I can possibly give him or her!

When the time was right for me to become a mom, I decided that I would begin the adoption process and try to get pregnant at the same time. After a number of failed fertility treatments, it is clear that I was always intended to create my family through adoption. I could not be happier to be on this journey with you!

I was in a long-term relationship with an ex-boyfriend for around seven years, but we broke up before we created a family together.

I am not presently in a relationship. I'm open to meeting someone in the future who shares my love of family, but I know with all my heart that now is the time for me to become a mom.

My entire family is ready and waiting to shower your child with love and welcome him or her to the family.

My family is incredibly close and we can't wait to welcome your child!

I have lived in the same close-knit New Jersey town since I was seven years old, which means I have family and friends all around. They are an amazing support system and a constant source of joy, love, laughter.

Many of my friends live within walking distance of me and nearly all of them have young kids. I love to have people over for simple get-togethers, and to hang out on my friends porches with their young children when the weather is nice out.

My mom, Bev, is my best friend and will be an every day part of your child's life! She is amazing with children, allowing them to be silly and serious by making them feel heard and smart.

We talk on the phone every day, get together all the time, and enjoy family vacations together every summer.

She is an amazing woman and role model, and a wonderful Nana to my niece and nephews (Andrew, Kevin, Sky, and Quinn). I know she'll be similarly incredible with your child.

My older brother, Todd, lives close too, and he is such a great guy. I am grateful to Todd and his wife Lisa for giving me three awesome nephews and an amazing niece. I'm so proud of Andrew, Kevin, Sky, and Quinn.

It's been my pleasure to be their aunt and their cheerleader. I have proudly been with them through diapers, skinned knees, tears, laughter, baseball and football games, board games, sleepovers, movies, recitals, ping pong tournaments, and graduations.

I'm very close with my extended family, and I have cousins, aunts, and uncles up and down the East Coast!

My cousin Brooke (in North Carolina) cracks me up!

Many of my cousins now have young kids (and my youngest cousin, Christian, and his wife Claire are expecting in just a few months were all so excited!).

From the time I was a child until this day, we have had an annual summer gathering at one of our houses (usually in either North or South Carolina). It is so much fun kids playing, dogs barking, my cousin and I playing our guitars, staying up too late, and more!

I can't wait to share this with your child. My entire extended family is supportive of my adoption plan and ready to unconditionally embrace the newest addition.

My cousin Brit's adorable one-year old daughter, Magnolia. I sent her this rocking lamb for her birthday!

Holidays

Christmas is a really great holiday and time of the year for our family. We love to be together, decorating the tree, opening presents, and singing Christmas carols!

We also love Thanksgiving and Halloween (even my dog Henry gets in on the fun – he dresses up like a tiger each year!)

A Glimpse into My Life

My mom, Bev, and my dad, John, (sadly he passed away about seven years ago – far too soon) raised me in a house filled with unconditional love.

For me, no day is complete without friends and family in it, whether that means a phone call just to say hi, a funny this made me think of you text, a quick bite to eat out, or a casual get-together at a friends house.

Traveling is important to me and will be something that I share with your child. I love exploring cities and small towns, and visiting beaches, mountains, and everything in between. I look forward to sharing all of this with your child.

Family & Friends

Henry & Cougar Puma

Henry is my sweet, gentle, three-year-old rescue dog – he's energetic, so smart, loyal, and loving.

I also have two cats, Cougar and Puma, who are brother and sister. I rescued them from a local shelter about 7 years ago.

Ready to be a mom!

Children and education have always been incredibly important to me. I started my career as a seventh-and eighth-grade science teacher.

Today, I am the vice president of a college. My job allows to me make a difference, and also to have a flexible schedule. If you choose me to adopt your child, I can promise you that she or he will be showered with love and surrounded by some of the most amazing and cool people from all backgrounds and all over the world.

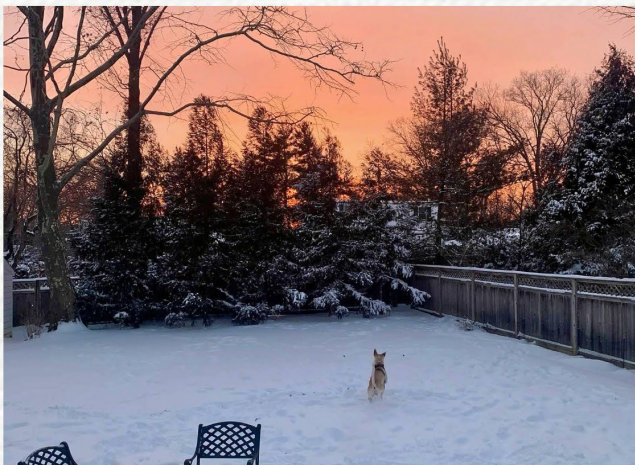

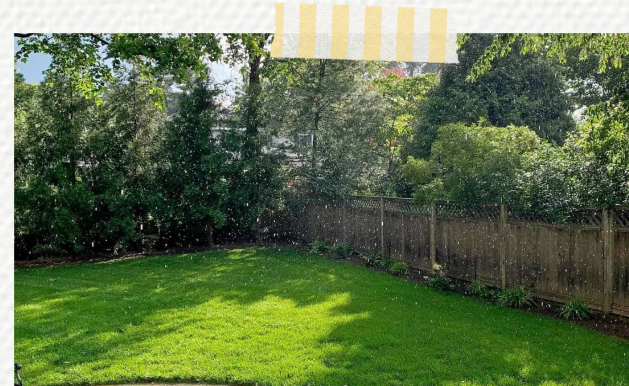

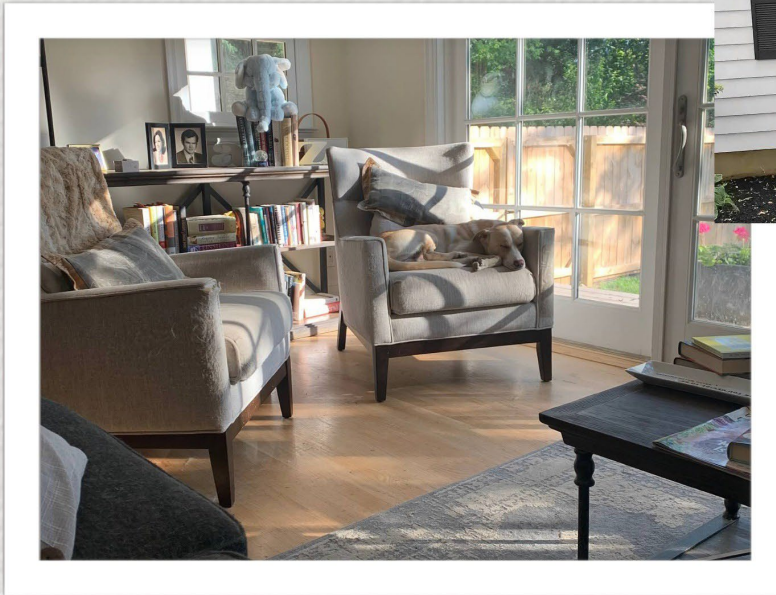

The college is extremely forward-thinking and diverse. I know the wonderful staff, faculty and students will all embrace this child with open arms and hearts.

Since my career is established and my schedule is flexible, I can be a totally hands-on mom. Plus, my college is close-knit, family-friendly, and incredibly supportive of families of all kinds.

I love that I can make a difference and have a flexible schedule, which will allow me to be a totally present mom to your child

Home Sweet Home!

I live within walking distance of town, many of my friends, and the college where I work. My home has a large, fenced-in back yard where I love to play with my sweet dog Henry, have meals on the patio, play guitar, and hang out with friends and family. The family room has sliding doors that lead right to the deck and large yard, so were constantly enjoying fresh air and sunshine.

Adventures Ahead

Whether hiking in Colorado, paddleboarding in Bermuda, or visiting England (where I was born), I love outdoor adventures and traveling with friends and family! I can't wait to share my love of adventure and all of these wonderful experiences with your child.

*My Promises to
You and Your Child*

First and foremost, I want you to let me know whatever your needs are so I can help you through this. You and your feelings are tremendously important to me. I want to follow your lead in terms of how much we stay in touch or get together, and I would love to hear your dreams for your child. I am always here for you. Beyond that...

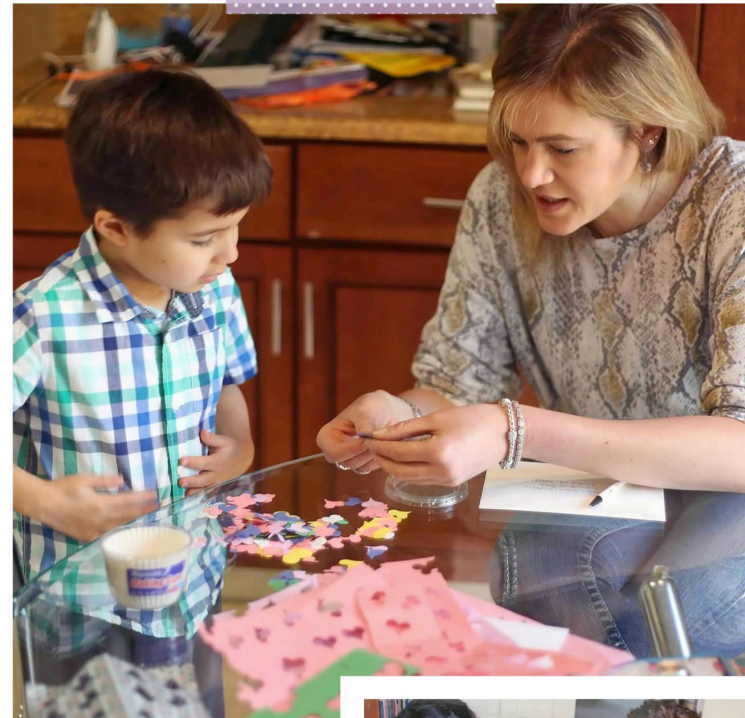

I will love your child fiercely and unconditionally, doing everything I possibly can to provide him or her with a wonderful life.

I will encourage and nurture your child's unique talents, interests, and qualities, always valuing and supporting his or her individuality.

I will ensure that your child has a childhood filled with love, laughter, wonder, adventure, learning, and joy.

I will be forever dedicated to ensuring your child's health, happiness, and success.

Your child and I will always celebrate you with love and deepest gratitude for the extraordinary person who made it possible for me to become a mother.
