A young couple is smiling and posing outdoors. The woman on the left has long, wavy blonde hair and is wearing a rust-colored button-down shirt. The man on the right has short brown hair and a beard, wearing a dark grey t-shirt. They are standing next to a tree trunk with light-colored bark. The background is a soft-focus outdoor setting with trees and a bright sky.

hello,

We hope that life is treating you well despite any challenges you may be facing currently. As we know from our own personal experience, life can have it's challenges sometimes and if you are viewing this book you are likely trying to navigate some very difficult life circumstances. It's not easy, but if you're reading this it seems that you're trying to navigate these difficult circumstances the best way you know how. We hope you're proud of yourself for that! It shows great resilience, which can be a trait that is difficult to attain.

We would love to be a part of your journey in any way possible - whether that means we are lucky enough to become adoptive parents to your child, or are able to be a friendly support.

If you decide to place your child for adoption, we recognize the immense trust it will take to entrust another person with your child's well-being and upbringing. We hope to be able to gain your trust as we get to know each other. We love connecting with others and making life-long friendships, and hope that this journey allows us to form new and lasting connections. If you were to entrust us with raising your child, we would value our relationship with you and honor you as someone who gave us the greatest gift we could ever receive. A gift that for years we have been hoping and praying for, but have not been able to receive on our own.

We recognize that this is your decision and you have to do what you feel is best for you and your baby. We support whatever decision you make, whether that be adoption or raising your baby yourself. We pray that everything works out for you and your little one, and that you receive the guidance and strength you need.

Sending our love your way,

OUR Love Story

We are the Kearsley's!

Our story is about how despite all odds, a farm boy from Idaho met a beautiful girl from the suburbs of Maryland and started an amazing life together.

We met at a college activity making origami dinosaurs.

It was love at first YouTube tutorial.

Later that night we talked for a few minutes, and we just felt it was so easy to talk to each other. Almost like we had been best friends before and were just picking up where we left off.

It took Kelton a month to get up the courage to ask Kaylee out, but since our first date, we have been inseparable. We have been together for 4 years now, and married for almost 3.

in Cabo San Lucas

We always dream of where we would want to visit and explore.

We have always dreamed about going to Hawaii and experiencing the culture, ocean, and pina coladas. We also would love to visit Costa Rica, where Kaylee lived for a year and a half, to visit some of the people she came to know and love.

And then Iceland looks super pretty, and Europe would be so amazing to see...we just want to see all of the beauty the world has to offer!

We are always looking for an adventure, from game nights with friends to exploring outdoors and finding the nearest lake to kayak on.

MEET

our family

To us, a great life is made up of the simple things.

It's hard for us to find things that we don't enjoy doing. We crave adventure and love trying new things, and having new experiences.

We love chasing mountain lions, hiking, camping, playing sports, singing and making music, woodworking, trying new recipes, and watching shows together.

We are always ready for a good competition...we're just the right amount of competitive!

As much as we love the big adventures, we also love small ones...going for a walk, taking a drive, an ice cream cone, or singing a song at the top of our lungs in the car. We love finding joy in the small things.

Why Adoption

TO US

adoption means hope.

A hope that a child can have a wonderful life, with all of the opportunities you want for them.

A hope that an adoptive family can have children, despite not being able to on their own.

A hope that beauty can come out of challenging & difficult circumstances.

When we first started dating, we both expressed a desire to adopt when we started a family. We always knew that adoption would be a part of our story...we've seen how adoption has blessed the lives of several friends & family members. Their families just would not be complete without them.

We felt, and feel, the same way...we just didn't realize how much of a reality that would be for us.

Shortly after we got married, we decided it was time to grow our family. After trying for months, something didn't seem right. We discovered we would likely not be able to have kids of our own, and in a couple of years, it would be impossible. We tried everything - including an embryo transfer last November that resulted in a miscarriage. We were devastated, but knew that God has a plan for our family. Our adoption journey has given us a new hope and light in our lives.

We love...
BEING ON THE FARM, HIKING, RIDING AND CAMPING
and
BUILDING FURNITURE
TOGETHER.

The Holiday's

Christmas is our favorite Holiday. We love being able to spend time with family, and love thinking of gift ideas for others. We love the lights, the Christmas music, the scents, and playing in the snow. It's all just the best.

We built
our bedroom furniture!

Our Temporary Home

This is our temporary home while Kelton is in school and then we are hoping to be able to move into a house. It's a simple two bedroom apartment that is newly renovated and has everything we need. We love it because even though it's an apartment, we have been able to make it our own and is a place we enjoy coming home to. We are surrounded by a great community and great neighbors! School, grocery stores, downtown Moscow, our church, playgrounds and close friends are all just a few minute walk from our apartment.
