

Sara
& Tim

Hi there!

How can we possibly express the love we already feel for a baby we have yet to meet?

The thought of adoption has brought so much joy into our lives already, and we want you to know what a treasure this will be for our family, and how much we will love this little baby.

We are raising our 2 daughters to be the best people they can be in a loving and nurturing home. We promise to raise this baby with God as our center and with values such as generosity, kindness, and respect for others. We will encourage his or her hopes and dreams, but we will also have fun, laugh, be silly, and cry with them.

We love our family time together, whether it be going on adventures, spending time with family and friends, or just relaxing at home with a movie.

Please know we are praying for you constantly, and if you choose, we would be honored to be a part of this journey with you.

Love,

Tim, Sara, Elizabeth and Sydney

OUR Story

While living with 2 friends after college, one of Sara's roommates had a group of friends she watched movies with weekly. Sara decided to start joining and met Tim.

We slowly got to know each other and after a few months, Tim asked her on a date! Fifteen years and two little girls later, we still love our movie dates.

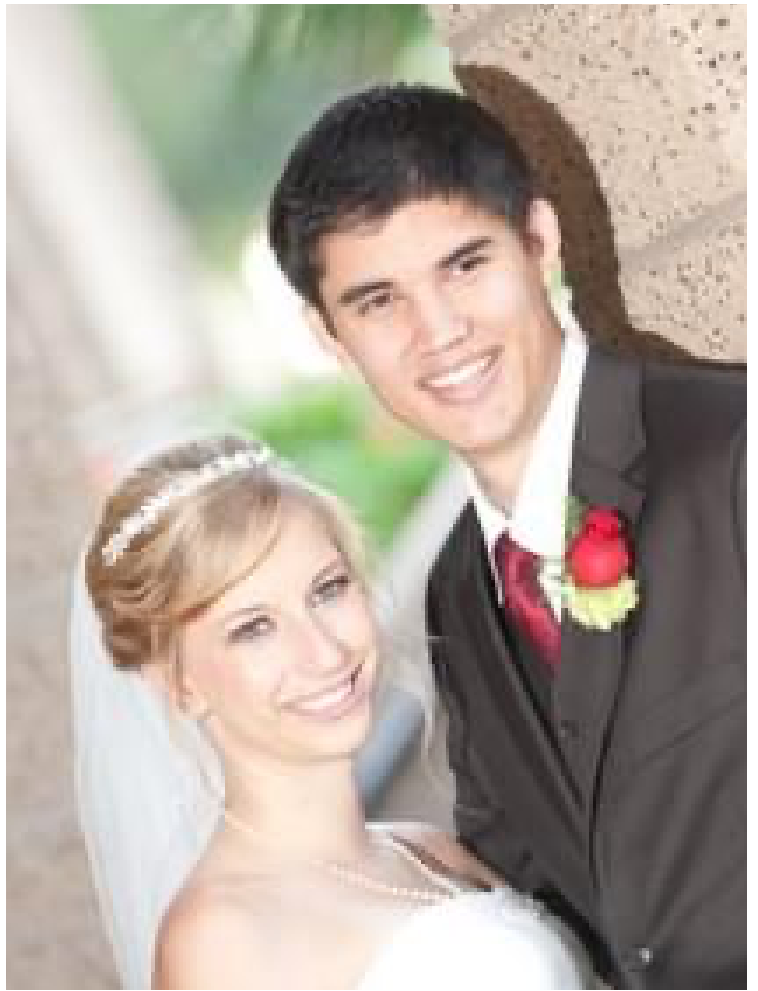

We are a family who loves to have fun and spend time together. We love to spend time outside playing at the park or at the pool, or just in the backyard.

We recently moved to a new neighborhood with lots of kids, so we're excited to meet them!

Our first date was ...

dinner and a movie...a really bad movie!

in Italy

Our Dream Vacation

We would love to travel to Europe, especially Switzerland. We traveled to Italy a few years ago and want to keep exploring other countries and cultures.

Sara's favorite way to relax is...

A good book and a fireplace video from YouTube on TV

Sara's best trait is...

She is sensitive to other people's needs and emotions and looks for ways to support them.

Sara is very patient, kind, and willing to help. She is easy going and has the best attitude while caring for others as well.

When she sets her mind to do something she will stick with it until it is done. When it's time to play or get out and exercise, she brings a positivity and energy to keep things light and fun. She has a good sense of humor and isn't afraid to be the butt of a joke or make fun of herself.

Sara is the youngest of 2 children. She has one older brother who is married with 2 girls, ages 14 and 12 and they all live about an hour away. Her parents also live close by and love spending time with their grandkids.

We get together on all holidays and birthdays, and often in between to for BBQ's, swimming and enjoying each other's company.

Tim's favorite way to relax is...

Tim makes me laugh every day, even after 15 years. His ability to make me laugh was the first thing I liked about him.

Tim is thoughtful, kind and is always trying to make people happy. He consistently puts his family first. I love watching him be a dad and see the way he loves our girls.

MEET
Tim's family

Tim is the youngest of 4 children. He has 1 older brother and 2 older sisters. His brother lives about 1.5 hours away, and his sister and parents in Colorado, and his oldest sister and her family live in London.

We talk with his family often, once a week over video calls, and try to get together once a year or so, so the cousins can play and stay close.

Why adoption?

To us, adoption feels like completing our family.

We have talked about adopting since before we got married. We always believed in providing a safe and loving home to a child who needed it. We know that no matter the gender or race, this child will be our family.

While we don't know yet what our family will look like, we feel strongly that this is God's plan for us, and can't wait to see what is in store.

Our Sunday Traditions

Every Sunday begins with our 8:30 am video call with Tim's parents, siblings and their families. Then at 9:15 we head off to church. The girls love going to their own classes!

After church we often like to grab donuts and head to the park by our house.

Then we go home for lunch and a good nap (Sarah usually joins the girls for an afternoon nap!). The rest of the day is spend relaxing at home together and preparing for the next week.

OUR
Favorite holiday

Christmas because Tim loves getting gifts!
But we also love spending time with our families, and seeing how excited our girls get for the holiday. They are now beginning to understand the meaning behind Christmas as well, and getting to experience Christmas through their eyes is so special.

MEET
Elizabeth
Sydney

Elizabeth (4) and Sydney (2) can't wait to be the best big siblings. They already love and support each other so much.

Elizabeth is a great big sister, always playing dolls with Sydney. Elizabeth is also taking swim lessons and loves to swim!

Sydney loves to play dress up and jump on the bed with her big sister.

Sweet home Our home

WE LIVE IN A BEAUTIFUL NEW NEIGHBORHOOD THAT IS FULL OF FAMILIES WITH CHILDREN OF ALL AGES.

We moved into this home on August 26, 2022 as a brand new home. We love to see kids outside playing, families walking, and we love going to the block parties. We have such great neighbors we talk to often, and others we are still just meeting. Our city is quickly growing but still has a small town feel, with rolling hills and farms nearby.

We have a 5 bedroom home, which will allow each of our kids to have their own bedroom. Our girls love sharing a room right now though!

We also have a backyard that the kids love to play in every day, and great walking trails nearby that we walk on to go to the park.

Before you go

We want you to know...

WE AREN'T PERFECT PARENTS BUT WE TRY OUR BEST TO RAISE OUR CHILDREN TO LOVE OTHERS AND EACH OTHER.

- ♥ We want them to know how much they are loved and show them how to express that love, and show kindness and respect towards others.
- ♥ We want them to be confident in themselves and in the choices they make because they will always have us backing them.
- ♥ We want to instill a good work ethic, and opportunities to show responsibility while allowing them room to make mistakes and grow from them.
- ♥ We try to teach them the importance of apologizing for our mistakes and trying to make things right.
- ♥ We promise to treat your child the same, like they are our own and love them unconditionally like our own.
