"All our dreams can come true, if we have the courage to pursue them."

Walt Disney

hello.

We want to thank you for taking the time to get to know us.

Hopefully these pages give you a little insight as to who we are. Obviously, we don't know each other yet, but we hope we're on the same page. The page of wanting the same thing, unconditional love and support for the ones that we love and hold dear to our hearts. We hope that whatever decision you make, you feel all of the love and support that you need and deserve.

We have built our relationship, and the relationships we have with everyone in our lives, on the values of respect, family and happiness. Our home comes with a little extra of all three of those things as Nancy's mom, Annette, lives with us. Nettie, as we like to call her, is a retired nurse who has always put others first and even in retirement, still does. We don't have any kids of our own yet but we have a niece and nephew that we see every weekend and love them like our own. A lot of our friends have kids and we love all of them just as much.

The most important thing for you to know about us is that we promise to deliver what all children deserve: a safe and happy home, room to grow and explore all life has to offer but most importantly, unconditional love.

Thank you,

Nancy & Justin

Our Story

We met through mutual co-workers! Nancy had a co-worker who was dating Justin's co-worker, and after talking to each other about us, they thought we would make a perfect couple (they were right).

Justin's co-worker got Nancy's number for him, and he text her on August 16, 2017 to set up their first date for August 18th and the rest is history!

Our first date was ...

dinner at Olive Garden and bowling!

We got married in 2020 and since then we have worked really hard to build a happy, loving home. We've built our relationship and our home around communication, and made sure we always put our family first.

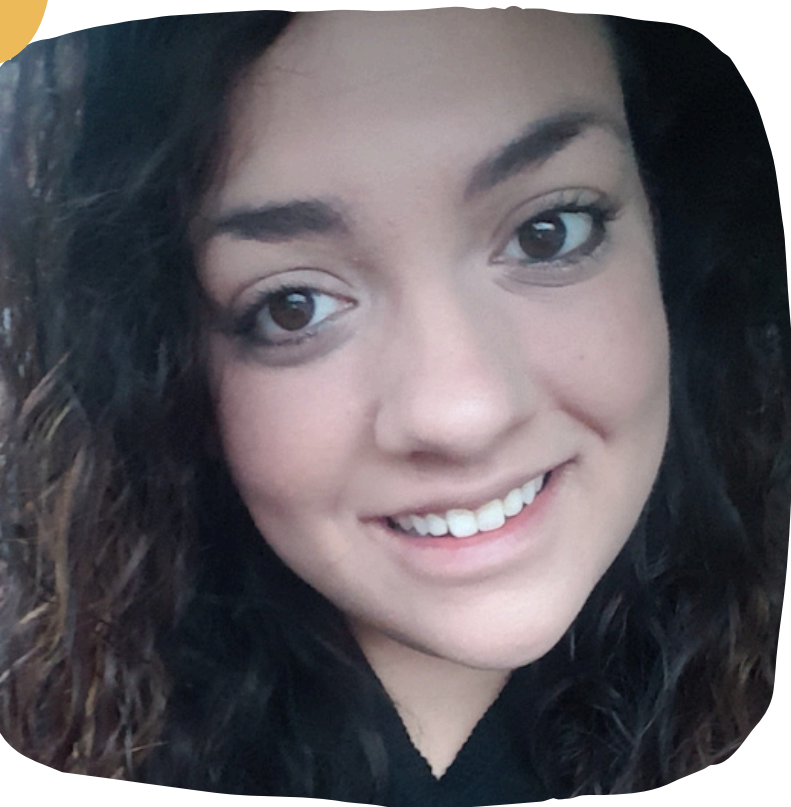

We love to spend time together and Sunday's are always family days that start with breakfast and a walk in the park, if the weather cooperates. We do things to get ready for the week, like laundry and meal prepping; depending on the time of the year we usually watch football or Nascar and end the day with a card game and movie.

AS TOLD BY JUSTIN

Meet Nancy!

She is the most caring and everyone that she meets gets to see exactly what I get to see every day, the person who cares so much, and is so fun to be around.

Nancy is the person who will bend over backwards for anyone. She is the person who anyone can go to and Nancy will listen and be there for you and offer any advice she has.

Nancy has the most amazing personality and has the sweetest heart I've ever seen.

Nancy grew up with her family in a small town in Ohio. She lived with her parents, sister, and brother. Unfortunately, there hasn't been a relationship with her dad and sister, and her brother passed away in 2004 at the age of 15. Nancy's relationship with her mom is stronger than ever and with the tragedies they've faced, are stronger together.

AS TOLD BY NANCY

Justin has one of the biggest hearts. He is someone who is always there for anyone and is willing to help.

Meet Justin!

Justin is also one of the goofiest people I've ever met. He has what we call "Justin-isms" where he says things like "two forks don't make a right" and it makes no sense, even to him, but to make people laugh is something he is always doing. I couldn't imagine building my life and future family with anyone else.

Justin grew up just across the Ohio/Pennsylvania border with his parents and brother. Justin's parents have been happily married for almost 35 years. He and his brother were always close growing up, and are even closer now. Justin's family has always had a close relationship and that is something he holds close to his heart.

Meet Nettie!

WHEN WE THINK ABOUT THE STRONGEST PEOPLE WE KNOW, NETTIE IS ONE OF THE FIRST ONES TO COME TO MIND.

She has been through a lot in her life and the smile on her face never disappeared, nor did her unwavering commitment to her family - no matter what life threw her way. Nettie was a nurse for over 40 years, and it is the most fitting career for her. One day while grocery shopping, this woman walked up to them and started crying and she said, "you don't remember me, do you?" Nettie replied that she was sorry, but she didn't remember her. Turns out, she was working at the clinic when this woman was diagnosed with breast cancer. She told Nettie that she made the blow of getting diagnosed with cancer so much easier and how Nettie's love towards a total stranger was so special.

To this day, Nettie is always there when anyone needs her. Nettie retired from nursing in 2021, but she's a busy body so she started working part-time at the medical-dental bureau. Nettie is a go with the flow kind of person. Her and her boyfriend love to run errands together, watch movies, try new restaurants and from time to time go to the casino. Nettie is also the best Gam Gam to our pup, Kane! We love having Nettie with us because of her fun-loving energy she brings to our home.

We love to go all out decorating for Christmas!

Our home

Sweet home

WE LIVE IN RURAL OHIO AND WE CAN'T WAIT TO RAISE OUR FAMILY HERE.

In 2019 we bought our 3 bedroom home. We have slowly finished projects to make it ours and transform our house into a home filled with love and memories. We installed a pool in our fenced in backyard that has become the perfect spot for family fun and lazy summer days, refinished our basement perfect for game and movie nights, and converted our front formal room into a playroom.

We have great neighbors who also have younger children, so our neighborhood is full of life, laughter and a sense of community you can only find in the Midwest. We are close to our local parks and playgrounds, schools and shopping, but far enough away that we get to enjoy quiet and relaxing fall nights around the firepit with Nettie.

Why adoption?

FROM THE START, WE KNEW WE WANTED TO BE PARENTS.

We have both always loved kids. Due to some issues, we knew we'd need help getting pregnant so after we got engaged, we started with a fertility specialist. We spent about 4 years doing fertility treatments. All of our rounds failed, except for one. Unfortunately, that round ended in an ectopic pregnancy. Since then, we have grieved, healed, and had big discussions about what the future would look like.

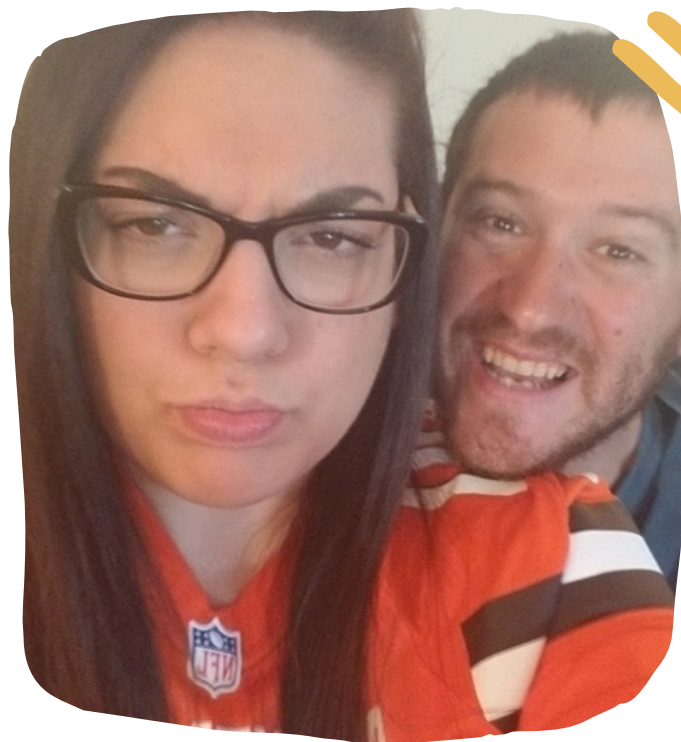

Ultimately we decided adoption is the way we are meant to grow our family and we hope to provide a happy, healthy home to a child whom we can love unconditionally.

We want our relationship with you to be one where questions will always be answered. We want your child to know where they come from. And we want our child's birth mother to know what their child is up to and how they're doing. We have so much love in our home and community and we are ready to share that with you and your child. We understand that adoption sometimes means sharing in big moments and we are open to whatever involvement you want to have.

For us, adoption means completing our family.

Our Favorite Pastimes!

We love to watch Football and Nascar! Nancy is a Cleveland Browns fan and Justin is a die hard Philadelphia Eagles fan, so we love when our teams play against each other!

We live an hour and a half away from the Cleveland Browns' stadium, so when the Eagles and Browns played in preseason, we knew we had to go!

Can you guess who's team won this game?

Justin has always been a big Nascar fan, and in 2023 we went to our first race! We can't wait to go to another!

Our Holiday Traditions!

Christmas is our absolute favorite! Nancy especially loves the hustle and bustle of the season and wrapping gifts. Our favorite part is ending the holiday season with Christmas Eve and day with our families.

Every Christmas Eve, we fill Santa bags for our niece and nephew. We leave the bags on their porch and ring the doorbell and run. When they open the door, the bags are there with a letter from Santa for being on the nice list. Getting to see their faces light up and know that they were thought of is the absolute best feeling.

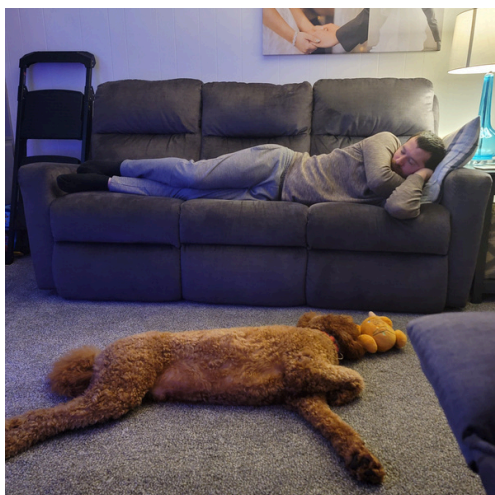

We also love going to the zoos within driving distance that decorate the entire zoo in Christmas lights!

Meet Kane Austin!

We have one sweet dog named Kane Austin (after two of our favorite wrestlers)! He is a Goldendoodle and his birthday is August 6th. He is extremely smart and cuddly, and he wants to make friends with every person he comes across. He even helps pass out candy for Halloween and loves all of the pets from the kids! He is so great with our niece and nephew and all the kids our friends have!
