OUR EXPERIENCE.

For more than 60, we have worked with individuals and companies to provide emergency evacuation services around the clock. Our clientele ranges from individuals, corporates, NGO's, Banks and government institutions.

Below is a list of some of the clients we have serve

Highlights about Air Evacuation.

An air ambulance is an aircraft which is used for emergency medical assistance for quicker response to areas where air transport facility is mostly available

An air ambulance is the safest and quickest travel option for patients who are too sick or weak to endure the rigours of commercial flights. Apart from functioning as a traditional ambulance, an air ambulance consists of all the required medical equipment like ECG, ventilators, medicine, and stretchers etc. We always have a trained medical personnel on aboard the air ambulance to assist the patient in the best possible manner.

In the field of Emergency Medical Services, time plays a very important role as the need to reach patients as early as possible, determines whether a life shall be saved or not. To cope up with this situation, AMREF Flying doctors developed a product that ensures, people who need emergency air evacuation receive the service on time.

We are available for a session with yourselves to discuss this proposal further.
