

O'Connell Group Cork 20 International Rally 2022 Press Release 1 – 06/07/22

Planning for this years O'Connell Group Cork "20" International Rally 2022 is now at an advanced stage with little over 3 weeks to go. The organisers have been working night and day over the course of the last few months to put together the event which takes place on the 30th/31st July 2022.

The response from competitors since the entries opened last week has been magnificent , entries will remain open and so the organisers would encourage any interested competitors to submit their entries early so as to avoid disappointment.

Commenting today, Clerk of the Course, Kevin O'Riordan outlined "that the event is shaping up to be a terrific occasion, and it is great to see such a positive and encouraging response from competitors resulting in quality entries received so far. Kevin, went on to say that a huge debt of gratitude has to go to a large collective of associated parties, the residents along the stages who openly welcome the rally to their area and proposing to close the roads, Cork County Council for their ongoing support in the road closing application process, The Gardai, Emergency Services and Motorsport Ireland and many many more, too many to mention".

The rally itself will take place over stages in the Rathcormac, Glentane & Ballylusky areas on the Saturday of the event and in the Glenville, Killavullen, Chimneyfield areas on the Sunday of the event with centralised service both days in the state of the art Cork Marts facility, Corrin Rathcormac. The headquarters base for the event is once again the Radisson Blu Hotel, Little Island.

The event again welcomed the title sponsor for the event, the O'Connell Group, Glanmire with ongoing valuable support from long term sponsors, Acesigns Signmakers and the Radisson Blu Hotel , we thank them all sincerely for their support.

More details of the event will be released in the coming days on our website www.munstercarclub.com and on our club Facebook page Munster Car Club/Cork 20 International Rally and on Instagram @munstercarclub. The Press Launch for the event will take place in the Radisson Blu Hotel, Little Island, Cork on the 15th July @19.30hrs and all are welcome to attend.

In the meantime if you are looking for any information in relation to the event, Clerk of the Course, Kevin O'Riordan can be contacted on +353 (87) 9580865 or Deputy Clerk of the Course, Paul Browne on +353 (87) 2689318
