The Stewards, having summoned and heard Mr. Hugues Moilet, have considered the following matter, determine the following:

Fact: The driver is wearing black FIA homologated socks.

Offence: None

Decision: Decision No. 06 (Doc. No. 2.9) is annulled.

Reason: Prior to Stewards Decision no. 06, the driver could not be heard, and the decision was based only on a photograph and the report of the FIA TD. The scrutineers who took the photo did not ask the driver about the socks and so he could not explain that he always puts the socks in his shoes after the selective section to cool down his legs. The driver was able to show the stewards that he was wearing black homologated socks in his shoes.

The Stewards conclude that due to the lack of any hearing and the explanation now given by the driver, the Stewards Decision no 06 must be canceled.

Competitors are reminded that they have the right to appeal certain decisions of the Stewards, in accordance with Article 15 of the FIA International Sporting Code and Article 9.1.1 of the FIA Judicial and Disciplinary Rules, within the applicable time limits.

Uwe M. SCHMIDT
FIA Chairman of the Stewards

Jean-Pierre TARDENT
FIA Steward

José Luis CONDE DONAIRE
