

Human Relations Commission Meeting

Wednesday, May 23, 2018

A meeting of the Doylestown Borough Human Relations Commission was held on the above date with the following members in attendance: Chairman Fred Stanczak, Vice Chairperson, Linda Quinn, John Fraser, Laurie Smith Kaczanowska, Nancy Reilly, Maxine Katz and Doreen Stratton. Also in attendance were Borough Manager John Davis and Borough Councilperson Noni West.

- 1. Approval of Minutes: The minutes from the March 28, 2018 meeting were approved.

- 2. Human Relations Commission Pamphlet Discussion

The Borough will handle printing the pamphlet. Noni West requested that about treatment in the first paragraph be removed. Linda Quinn will make the change and send an edited copy to the Commission and a formatted document to John Davis. A motion was made by Nancy Reilly to approve the pamphlet with the final edit, seconded by Maxine Katz and all approved.

The Commission will have a table at the June 23 and July 14 at the Farmers' Market with August and September dates to be determined.

- 3. Outreach Discussion

After discussing the protest that was held at Central Bucks West High School, the Commission looked at forms of mediation options to address the protesters. The final consensus was to create a public statement about the Human Relations Commission and its purpose and the incident at Central Bucks West High School. Fred will draft a statement and pass it along to the members of the Commission for their review and comments.

- 4. Old/New Business:

Peggy Dator, Chairperson of the Health & Safety Committee of the Bucks County Women's Advocacy Coalition, will be invited to the June 27, 2018 Human Relations Commission meeting. The Commission will also discuss the format of a Town Meeting that will give us an opportunity to use the Central Bucks incident to describe how we function.

- 5. Adjournment:

The next Human Relations Commission meeting is Wednesday, June 27, 2018.
