

Yorkshire Flood Resilience Project – consultation and surveys - Privacy Notice

We completed this privacy notice in October 2020 and will keep it under regular review. When we use your personal data, City of York Council (CYC) complies with data protection legislation, and is the registered 'Controller'. Our data protection notification is registered with the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) – reference Z5809563.

Why will information be collected?

We will conduct consultations and surveys at times including personal information, on behalf of Yorkshire Flood Resilience Project.

Many consultations and surveys are completely anonymously and do not ask for personal information. In some cases we will ask for personal data which will be used to help inform the project.

We will explain why we are collecting personal data and will only use it with your explicit and informed consent.

Participation is voluntary and you can choose not to answer some of the survey questions. You can withdraw your consent at any time, by contacting: yorkshirepropertyfloodresilience@york.gov.uk

What information will be collected?

Each survey will have different requirements when collecting data and may include personal information, thoughts and opinions.

What will we do with the information?

The information we collect will be included in presentations and reports. Any data for publication or use outside of the authorised individuals, will be anonymised and will not identify you.

We will not use the data for any other purpose than stated and will not disclose to a third party i.e. other companies or individuals, unless we are required to do so by law for the prevention of crime and detection of fraud, etc.

We work with partners, agencies, groups etc. on this project and surveys such as:

- Environment Agency
- ICASP – integrated catchment solutions programme
- JBA Consulting
- Living with Water Partnership
- DeFRA

Where we use SurveyMonkey for our online surveys, you can find out how they use your information here.

Where will the information be kept

We will keep the information you give us and your personal data securely either in the council's secure network or in our partners' secure network and make sure it can only be accessed by those who are authorised to.

Where you complete a paper copy of a survey we will transfer the information you have given onto the council's secure network or in our partners' secure network, and then securely destroy the paper copy once the transfer is complete.

How long will we keep the information?

We will keep the information you give us and your personal data for up to three years and then will securely destroy it.

Where required or appropriate to, at the end of the retention period, we will pass onto the City Archives any relevant information.

Further Processing

If we wish to use your personal data for a new purpose, not covered by this Privacy Notice, we will provide you with a new notice explaining the purpose prior to commencing the processing and the processing conditions. Where and whenever necessary, we will seek your consent prior to the new processing.
