

Privacy policy regarding the use of images and/or voice recordings*

During the event, photographs and audiovisual recordings will be taken for exclusively institutional, informational, educational, scientific, or cultural purposes. These images and recordings may be used by DIPC and/or Euskampus Fundazioa in any physical or digital medium, present or future, including its website, social media, publications, digital platforms, media outlets, documentary archives, and internal or external communication channels. They may also be shared with entities affiliated with DIPC that participate in scientific, educational, or outreach activities, always within the purposes mentioned above. The material may be processed by third parties providing communication, production, or management services, acting as data processors in accordance with current regulations. This authorization is granted on a non-exclusive, indefinite, free-of-charge, and worldwide basis. Under no circumstances will the material be used for commercial purposes, nor will it infringe upon the honor, privacy, or rights of the individual.

Interested parties may exercise their rights of access, rectification, erasure, objection, restriction of processing, data portability, and the right to be forgotten by submitting a request to data-protection@dipc.org (DIPC) and lopd@euskampus.eu (Euskampus Fundazioa). Additional information about data protection can be found on our websites.
