

NORTHLAKE'S LEGACY CORNER

Northlake would like to honor

Mrs. Georgia R. Cue (A.K.A. "Mama Cue")

Mrs. Georgia R. Cue (AKA Mama Cue) has been a resident of Northlake Community for 30 years. Mrs. Cue graduated from Stanton High School in 1945. After graduation, she attended Grady Memorial in Atlanta, GA to further her education. In 1949, she earned a degree in Nursing and subsequently passed the National State Board examination and became a Registered Nurse (RN), which gave her reciprocity in all 50 states.

After receiving her certification, Mrs. Cue became employed with Duval Medical Center, later known as University Medical Center. During her tenure as a RN, Mrs. Cue held the following positions: Staff Nurse, Head Nurse, and Supervisor on 3 North Surgical Ward.

In 1980, Mrs. Cue took a position in Social Services as a Discharge Planner for patients and families for 2 1/2 years. Mrs. Cue's nursing career span from 1946-1983, and she retired from University Medical Center (currently UF Health) after 38 years of dedicated service.

Since retiring in 1983, Mrs. Cue has enjoyed cooking and spending quality time with her family. She has been a member of Second Missionary Baptist Church for over 80 years, where Rev. Barron O. Wilson is her pastor. On May 18, 2025, Mrs. Cue turned 98 years young.

Mrs. Cue is the mother of Mrs. Cynthia Person and mother-in-law of Sam Person (Sampson Road).

Mrs. Cue, on behalf of your Northlake family, we are blessed to have you as a neighbor. Your many years of service in the healthcare field are honorable and your sacrifices are greatly appreciated.

Legacy is not what I did for myself. It's what I'm doing for the next generation.
