

1.1.1 MODERN SLAVERY POLICY

1.1.1.1 Scope

The scope of this policy extends to all Personnel employed by Edocuments Ltd and or any sub contractor engaged to represent Edocuments Ltd.

1.1.1.2 Policy Statement

Edocuments is a global provider of intelligent solutions for the management of the built environment and is headquartered in the UK. Our supply chains consists of global suppliers of data hosting, computer software and equipment, office supplies and human resource support services.

Edocuments Board is committed to delivering high standards of corporate governance and a key element of this is managing the company in a socially responsible way. The company aims to employ the highest ethical and professional standards and always to comply with all local laws and regulations applicable to our business; it follows that Edocuments is absolutely committed to preventing slavery and human trafficking in its corporate activities and its supply chains. This commitment is emphasised in our company policies. Edocuments also expects the same high standards which we set for ourselves from those parties with whom we engage, such as our suppliers and customers.

Due to the nature of our business and our approach to governance, we assess that there is very low risk of slavery and human trafficking in our business and supply chains.

1.1.1.2.1 Policy Maintenance

We aim to periodically review the effectiveness of the relevant policies and procedures that we have in place. We do not have key performance indicators in relation to slavery or human trafficking as any instance would be expected to be a breach of law, our supplier standards and/or our company policies.

1.1.1.3 Deviations from Policy

Any deviation from this policy is strictly prohibited. Any deviation to or non-compliance with this policy shall be reported to the BMS Manager / Operations Director as appropriate.
