Dear Valued Customer,

At Honeywell, we strive to understand our customers better with our products and our mission is to provide them with Top-of-the-line protective equipment that helps protect workers and workplaces. We work towards providing better products with better features suited for our customer.

As we continue to grow and improve, we would like to inform you that we have recently optimized our supply chain and under that we will be supplying the King's comfort safety footwear line to Singapore from India. The product functionality, feature and aesthetics are exactly the same when compared to what is being currently supplied however the only thing which is being changed is the sku code and have mentioned below as the reference of the same.

Existing SKU	New SKU
KWS200-C	KWS200-N
KWD106-C	KWD106-N
KWD206-C	KWD206-N
KWD301-C	KWD301-N
KWD301K-C	KWD301K-N
KWD205-C	KWD205-N
KWD205C-C	KWD205C-N
KWD207-C	KWD207-N

There is a possibility that you might get stock which has mix of C or N marked footwear due to this transition phase however there is absolutely no difference in the product itself as stated earlier.

Hoping this change should not be a concern, should you have any questions about our this transition, please do not hesitate to reach out to a local Honeywell sales representative.

Sincerely,

APACI Marketing Manager
