

Edinburgh Students' Charities Appeal (ESCA)

Job Title: Student Fundraising Support Coordinator (Maternity Cover)

Line Manager: Chair of Trustees

Hours: 37.5 hours per week, 12 months Maternity Cover role

Salary: £21,000-£22,000 Location Central Edinburgh

Edinburgh Students' Charities Appeal (ESCA) provides support to students in Edinburgh who wish to gain skills and experience in fundraising. The organisation facilitates student led fundraising events and activities. In 2018-19 we involved hundreds of students who raised over £150,000 for charity.

We are looking for a Student Fundraising Support Coordinator to support students in Edinburgh with fundraising activities, by providing guidance and practical advice on a range of activities, including working with the RAG (Raising and Giving) student committee to plan their annual events. They will run the organisation's day-to-day activities, and contribute to strategic planning by working with the Trustees. They will also implement development projects to improve the support students receive and the events ESCA arranges.

MAIN DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Support ESCA's Student Volunteer Team with fundraising and event management

- Offer a high level of support and advice to student volunteers on all aspects of fundraising.
- Assist the RAG Committee to organise events, e.g. Hitchhikes, Meadows Marathon and RAG Week.
- Support students to develop, and adhere to, risk assessments, marketing plans, event budgets (in conjunction with the Company Secretary), and event plans/deadlines.
- Attend student meetings as necessary; ensure students are working to targets and deadlines.
- Provide volunteers with a safe and supportive environment.
- Facilitate communication within the organisation, particularly between the students and trustees.
- Arrange appropriate licenses and risk assessments for events, e.g. street collection licenses
- Support students in liaising with external suppliers and supporters, including oversight of contracts or sponsorships agreements.

Provide information and advice to all other students wishing to fundraise within Edinburgh

- Act as the main contact for general enquiries.
- Support sports clubs, societies and individuals with their charitable fundraising goals
- Deliver outstanding fundraising and events support face-to-face, over the phone and online, as well as providing quality fundraising resources to students and student societies.
- Develop and implement Support Agreements for societies and student groups
- Build effective working relationships with external organisations such as Edinburgh University Students Association (EUSA), the University of Edinburgh, and external charities.
- Speak to students who drop-in to the office, including fielding enquiries related to EUSA
- Actively seek to support students at ALL higher education institutions in Edinburgh

General Responsibilities

- Keep accurate records of volunteers and project activity.
