

Person Specification – Women's CYP Crisis Drop in Worker

Please address the following when completing the application form.
Certain points are essential while others are desirable for the post.

Values

Commitment to the feminist analysis of abuse	Essential
Ability to demonstrate a reflective practice.	Essential
Ability to demonstrate a non-discriminatory practice.	Essential

Qualifications, Knowledge and Experience

Knowledge of Women's Aid.	Essential
Experience of Women's Aid.	Desirable
Knowledge and understanding of the issues facing women, children and young people who have experienced domestic abuse.	Essential
Experience of working with people with complex issues	Essential
Level of experience in Trauma Based Practise	Essential

Skills and Ability

Experience of 1-1 support or advocacy in a work setting.	Essential
Ability to work under pressure to tight deadlines.	Essential
Ability to communicate effectively with and to maintain good working relationships with service users, staff and external agencies.	Essential
Ability to maintain appropriate records and statistics on.	Essential
Be competent in Social Media - Facebook, Instagram and Twitter	Essential
Ability to write clear and concise notes, be competent of OASIS, IT and all Microsoft Office packages.	Essential

Other

Good attendance record.	Essential
As this is a new post within GEWA you will have the skills, ability and knowledge to develop this post in partnership with Office Manager	Essential