Job Title:	EDDACS Advocacy Worker
Hours:	28 hours fixed term until March 2024
Salary:	SCP 27, £26566.72 pro rata
Responsible to:	Operational Manager
Context of Job:	To deliver the EDDACS service within Edinburgh Women's Aid.
Purpose of Job:	To provide a high-quality frontline service to victims of domestic abuse, delivering a service to those at highest risk. To work within a multi-agency framework consisting of the MARAC and local partnership responses to domestic abuse.

This role is subject to Adult and Child PVG scheme membership.

Main Duties

- Identify and assess the risks and needs of domestic abuse victims using an evidence-based risk identification checklist.
- To provide information, support and referrals as detailed in the EDDACS procedures
- Focus on and prioritise high risk cases and provide a pro-active, short to medium term crisis intervention service through individual safety planning and personal support.
- Work with victims of domestic abuse to help them access services to keep them and their children safe.
- Advocate for victims with agencies who can help to address the domestic abuse by:
  - I. Understanding the role of all relevant statutory and non-statutory services available to domestic abuse victims and how your role fits into them.
  - II. Providing advocacy, emotional and practical support and information to victims including in relation to legal options, housing, health and finance.

- III. Working directly with all key agency partners to address the safety of high risk victims and ensuring that their safety plans are coordinated particularly through the MARAC.
- Manage a case load ensuring each client receives the appropriate service individual to their needs.
  - Support the empowerment of the client and assist them in recognising the features and dynamics of domestic abuse present in their situation, and help them regain control of their lives.
  - Understand multi-agency partnership structures and work within a multi-agency setting which will include participation at the MARAC.
  - You will contribute interventions and help design a plan to protect victims and any children, while maintaining an independent role on behalf of your client, keeping their safety as central to any response.
  - Be proactive in carrying out periodic case reviews based on a review of risk and abuse which:
    - i. Feeds back into action planning to further progress, signpost or close cases and;
    - II. Provides feedback to your clients/agencies.
  - Help maintain accurate and confidential case management records and databases and contribute to monitoring information for the service.
  - Comply with data protection legislation, confidentiality and information sharing policy and procedures and all legislation connected to your work.
  - Support colleagues and partner agencies, through awareness raising and institutional advocacy, in order to provide the best possible service for victims of domestic abuse.
  - Respect and value the diversity of the community in which the services works in, and recognise the needs and concerns of a diverse range of survivors ensuring the service is accessible to all.
  - Remain up-to-date and compliant with all organisational procedures policies and professional codes of conduct and uphold standards of best practice.
