

Senior Therapeutic Support Worker (Young People's Service) (28 hours)

Job Description and Person Specification

Title:	Senior Therapeutic Support Worker (Young People's Service)
Salary:	£34,288.80 pro-rata
Hours:	28 hours per week
Length of post:	Funded until March 2025
Location:	Edinburgh
Holiday entitlement:	25 days annual leave; 10 days public holiday (pro-rata)
Pension Entitlement:	Employer contribution at 8% to Pensions Trust Flexible Retirement Scheme
Responsible to:	Head of Services
Supervision:	Internal supervision provided every 4-6 weeks. External practice support (supervision) provided at a frequency agreed with your line manager
Training:	Standard training budget applies to this post.

Job Summary

The post-holder will be responsible for managing ERCC's Young People's Service, the STAR project, which provides specialist counselling and support services, as required, to people of all genders aged 12-18 who have experienced any form of sexual violence at any time in their lives, including, rape, sexual assault, sexual abuse, sexual bullying and harassment, stalking, commercial sexual exploitation and organised abuse.

The post-holder will also carry a therapeutic support caseload and will be required to work across the different functions of the service including initial assessment, short and long term support, group support and text/email support. The post-holder will take an approach informed by an understanding of trauma, including complex trauma. The post-holder will also work alongside ERCC's management team to contribute to the operational and strategic leadership of the organisation.

Main duties include

Management and leadership

- 1. Provide high quality line management to staff and volunteers, including; support and supervision, oversee caseloads and allocated tasks, and ensure record-keeping and monitoring and evaluation are up-to-date.
- 2. Model a resilient approach to working in the service demonstrating a clear understanding of the importance of and commitment to self-care and boundary setting.
- 3. Ensure accurate records of all supervision are kept, and facilitate annual appraisals with supervised staff, working with them (1) to identify and work towards targets and outcomes for their work (work-planning) and (2) identifying strengths and areas for development (personal development planning.)
- 4. Work with the Head of Services to implement strategic plan as relevant to the Young People's services. Use appropriate workload management techniques and ensure work is delegated effectively to staff; regularly review STAR services against the identified service outcomes and targets.
- 5. Work with the Services Manager to ensure delivery of support services adhere to Rape Crisis Service Standards, relevant legislation and organisational policies.
- 6. Deputise for the Services Manager when required, including provision of management cover and responsibility for safeguarding.

Working with survivors

- 7. Provide regular therapeutic support sessions, face-to-face or remote, as required to young survivors of sexual violence. Provide support through other communication methods e.g. email/phone/video call/text as necessary.
- 8. Conduct initial assessments, working with survivors to identify their needs, goals and outcomes from support and assess the suitability of STAR to their needs.
- 9. Work on a community outreach basis as necessary,

Development

- 10. Lead on the development of the Young People's services to ensure responsiveness to young survivors' needs, as agreed with the Head of Services
- 11. Create appropriate resources for the STAR/SSP project and, in liaison with the Services Manager, develop appropriate processes and protocols for the projects.
- 12. Support development of other services across ERCC as necessary.

Working with others

- 13. Promote effective partnership working with key stakeholders, including participation at relevant multi-agency / strategic partnerships; maintaining effective working relationships with staff from other agencies, including the police, to ensure holistic needs of survivors are met.
- 14. Raise awareness of issues around sexual violence through training inputs, promotional events, talks etc.
- 15. Work effectively with the ERCC paid and volunteer worker team, attending meetings as required.

Working effectively and safely

- 16. Attend internal training and practice development sessions.
- 17. Ensure adherence to all relevant legislation and organisational policies including child and adult protection procedures, health and safety and lone working.
- 18. Work in accordance with ERCC's policy on equality and diversity.

Recording, reporting, monitoring and evaluating

- 19. Keeping accurate records of support provided; contributing data to allow ERCC to monitor and evaluate its services- including use of the OASIS data management system.
- 20. Contribute to the writing of applications and reports for funders and ERCC's Board of Directors.

This job description is not exhaustive and, following consultation, the post holder may be required to fulfil other responsibilities and tasks or cease any of the tasks given above.

Criteria	Essential	Desirable
Understanding of issues related to sexual violence	 Able to clearly articulate a feminist analysis of gender inequality and sexual violence. Understanding of the gendered dynamics and broad ranging of impacts of sexual violence, including rape, sexual assault, child sexual abuse and commercial sexual exploitation. 	Able to demonstrate a commitment to tackling men's violence against women and children
Management and leadership	 Demonstrable experience of managing, supporting and supervising staff and/or volunteers. Demonstrates a resilient approach, adopting and modelling strategies for managing workload, maintaining appropriate boundaries and promoting self-care. Experience in, and knowledge of service planning and development 	 Experience of promoting and sustaining volunteering within an organisation Experience of supervising counsellors, therapeutic support workers
Working with survivors	 Experience of providing individual counselling and/or support for young people using a trauma-informed and person-centred approach. 	 Qualification in counselling/psychotherapy at diploma level or above. Experience and skills in facilitating group support.
Working with others	 Ability to work collaboratively with key stakeholders to represent and promote ERCC and improve responses to survivors or sexual violence. Ability to work effectively as part of a team, and provide leadership when required 	Experience of chairing meetings and/or facilitating working groups

Person Specification

Working effectively and safely	 Ability to work according to relevant legislation, policy and procedures in support work, and to ensure others work in accordance with these. Understanding of relevant legislation (vulnerable adults, child protection, sexual offences, adults with incapacity). Clear commitment to equality and diversity, and anti-discriminatory practice. 	Relevant training in these legislative areas.
Recording, reporting, monitoring and evaluating	 Ability to ensure effective operation of systems for recording and reporting in relation to the support service, in accordance with ERCC data protection policy. Knowledge of relevant monitoring and evaluation systems and commitment to ensuring their effective operation. 	Experience of writing reports to funders.
Using IT and systems	Competent Microsoft user (Outlook, Excel, PowerPoint and Word).	 Familiarity with using online case management/outcomes recording systems (e.g. OASIS, I-ROC, Better Futures etc)
Other		 Fluent in a community language Knowledge of the criminal justice system, including reporting to the police and the legal system