About Access to Industry

Passport CashBack

Access to Industry's 'Passport CashBack' provides a service for young people aged 16-22 in HMP YOI Polmont that increases their employability skills prior to liberation. On liberation, it supports them into work, education and training. The project considers all young people in Polmont as having the potential to build skills towards employment, regardless of length of sentence.

Polmont Activity: Each young person is assigned a Caseworker who works with them to formulate an action plan that reflects their interests and aptitudes. Caseworkers encourage the uptake of other appropriate activity and services to best ensure the widest support in Polmont. The Caseworker maintains contact throughout the client's sentence.

Access to Industry also employs a Passport Cashback Coordinator who is based within Polmont's Employability Hub. The coordinator arranges and delivers skills training, makes links with employers, and encourages employer involvement. The Cashback Caseworkers work alongside the coordinator to influence the delivery programme and to encourage and support the young people's engagement with it.

Community Activity: On liberation, the same Caseworker supports the young person in the community to access opportunities and manage disclosure of convictions.

Geography: In Polmont, the project is available to all young people regardless of their home postcode. In the community, caseworkers work in areas with high numbers of young people who have served custodial sentences, these include Glasgow, North & South Lanarkshire, North & East Ayrshire, Fife, and Tayside.

Development: As we enter a new phase within justice, we will embark on changes to how our 16–18-year-olds are supported and work towards a community-based approach. We are also working with new legislation around bail and remand for young people. We will develop a whole systems Approach to ensure we engage with the most vulnerable young people in need of our support, and we will develop a flexible place-based approach to ensure this service meets the needs of our young people.

Funding: The current phase is funded until March 2023. Access to Industry will be applying to fund a similar CashBack project aligning to the newly launched phase 6 covering 2023-2026. As established CashBack Partners, AI are optimistic for continued funding.
