

EDINBURGH JEWISH
CULTURAL CENTRE

Committee Chair - Job Description

We are seeking a new chair who demonstrates the following experience and skills:

Essential

- Advocacy
- Building relationships
- Experience in governance
- Has lived or worked in Edinburgh for an extended period
- Has a deep understanding and sensitivity to all facets of Judaism
- Leadership skills
- Negotiation and diplomacy
- Partnership working
- Several years' experience chairing similar organisations
- Understanding of the Edinburgh community in terms of Jewish culture

Desirable

- Demonstrable fundraising experience, understanding of the Scottish fundraising landscape and a robust fundraising network
- Can prioritise tasks, create subcommittees when needed, pause and return to initiatives
- Has a wide network that extends beyond Edinburgh
- Lives in/near Edinburgh or visits Edinburgh regularly

Candidates should be prepared to put their networks at the disposal of EJCC.

Candidates should be able to demonstrate a commitment to the advancement of Judaism and Jewish life in all its richness and diversity.