

Job description

Key Worker, Key to Potential (Falkirk)

Part time – 21 hours a week

This is a new role funded by Cashback for Communities

For over 50 years, Cyrenians has tackled the causes and consequences of homelessness.

We understand that there are many routes into homelessness, and that there is no 'one size fits all' approach to supporting people towards more positive and stable futures. That's why all our work is values-led and relationships-based. We meet people where they are, and support them towards where they want to be.

Our Vision is an inclusive society in which we all have the opportunities to live valued and fulfilled lives.

Our way of working is built on our four core values, which are at the heart of all our work and decisions:

Compassion | Respect | Integrity | Innovation

1 General

Cyrenians has an ambitious plan to develop its services which support people to gain the confidence, skills, qualifications and experience to lead a healthy working life. We deliver a range of services focused on young people who face barriers to employment, training and further education.

Key to Potential Falkirk service provides holistic, person-centred support, to help young people coming up to school leaving age to progress into further education, training, or secure employment. This new service in Falkirk and mirrors the Key to Potential service in Edinburgh that has run for over 10 years.

Using an outreach approach, the post holder will provide key work, careers guidance and tailored support to young people identified by their school as at risk of leaving without a positive destination, likely to be struggling to engage with mainstream curriculum and have experienced disrupted attendance.

You should be experienced in working with vulnerable young people (15 – 18) and have the ability to build excellent working relationships; and be positive, creative and flexible in delivering support. You should also have the ability to demonstrate our values of compassion, respect, integrity and innovation in the work that you do.

Cyrenians requires all staff to be flexible in their approach and willing to help meet the aims of the charity, and those who use our services, in whatever circumstances arise. We expect all staff to display care, respect and a non-judgmental approach, being prepared to work tenaciously and imaginatively towards successful outcomes.
