CALL FOR TRUSTEES

All About Us:

The Alasdair Gray Archive is an interdisciplinary arts organisation with public engagement and creative commissioning at its core. It was established in March 2020 following Alasdair Gray's death late 2019 and in 2023 we became a Scottish Charitable Incorporated Organisation (SCIO) with the registration number 052417. We have created a socially-conscious model of making using Alasdair's approach as a methodology for creating new work. The Archive is generative and aims to amplify the social impact of creativity through a range of activities including public engagement, creative commissioning and education.

Skills:

We want to find new trustees with an interest and/or experience in:

- Fundraising and grant capture, alongside securing major gifts and philanthropic donations
- Legal (especially copyright and Intellectual Property)
- Book keeping
- PR and media development

We are looking for individuals who share our Organisational Values of Equity, Sharing and Openness. No prior board experience is necessary.

Access:

We are keen for you to tell us about yourself and in practical terms how you identify and prioritise areas that will make the most difference. We are looking for people who can work as a team, drive the strategic vision of AGA, advocate on behalf of AGA, communicate openly and are good at problem solving.

CALL FOR TRUSTEES

Equality, Diversity & Inclusion:

We are committed to creating a diverse and inclusive environment where all individuals feel valued and respected. We welcome applications from all backgrounds, regardless of age, gender, race, ethnicity, disability, sexual orientation, religion, belief, or any other characteristic protected by The Equalities Act 2010. We encourage applications from underrepresented groups and are dedicated to providing equal opportunities for all candidates throughout the recruitment process.

We value the unique perspectives and experiences that diversity brings and believe it is essential to our success. If you require any adjustments or support during the application process, please do not hesitate to contact us.
