

NEWS / PRESS RELEASE / PUBLIC CONSULTATION

Invitation for Comments – Electronic Communications Bill

October 16, 2025 – The National Communications Authority (NCA) intends to introduce the Electronic Communications Bill, 2025, to repeal and replace the existing Electronic Communications Act, 2008 (Act 775).

The purpose of this Bill is to:

- modernise and consolidate the legal and regulatory framework governing the provision of electronic communications, broadcasting, and related digital services;
- promote fair competition, innovation, and investment in Ghana's communications and digital ecosystem;
- strengthen the Authority's regulatory powers and processes for spectrum management, licensing, interconnection, and infrastructure sharing;
- enhance and promote consumer protection, data privacy, cybersecurity resilience, and universal access to communications services; and
- ensure alignment with emerging technologies, international standards, and digital transformation objectives.

Pursuant to Section 27 of the Electronic Communications Act, 2008 (Act 769) and the National Communications Authority Act, 2008 (Act 769) and the Telecommunications Policy 2005 (NTP'05), the Authority hereby invites all interested parties, including licensed service providers, industry stakeholders, civil society, and the general public on the Electronic Communications Bill, 2025.

We use cookies to ensure that we give you the best experience on our website. If you continue to use this site we will assume that you are happy with it.

Ok, got it!

The public consultation begins on 16th October, 2025 and shall expire on 29th October, 2025.

All responses/comments should be electronically transmitted as e-mail attachments, in Microsoft Word format to info@nca.org.gh .

All submissions must include a completed response cover sheet (refer to Page iii of the document).

We encourage respondents to specify the sections with which they agree or disagree.

In the interest of transparency, all responses will be considered non-confidential.

By submitting your response, you grant the NCA the right to use the copyright and any associated intellectual property contained in your submission to meet its legal obligations.

Following the conclusion of the public consultation, the NCA will finalise the Electronic Communications Bill, 2025.

Download the Bill below...

Electronic Communications Bill docx

We use cookies to ensure that we give you the best experience on our website. If you continue to use this site we will assume that you are happy with it.

Ok, got it!

Contact Us

National Communications Authority

Airport City, Accra, Ghana

📍 GL-126-7029

✉ info@nca.org.gh

📞 +233 (0)302 776621/771701

Quick Links

Ministry of Communication, Digital Technology and Innovations

West Africa Telecommunications Regulators Assembly

International Telecommunication Union

African Telecommunication Union

Newsletter

Be the first to know about the latest updates, events, and more.

Your email

☐ I agree to receive occasional information from the NCA.

Subscribe

© 2021 National Communications Authority. All Rights Reserved.

Privacy Policy

We use cookies to ensure that we give you the best experience on our website. If you continue to use this site we will assume that you are happy with it.

Ok, got it!

NEWS / PRESS RELEASE / PUBLIC CONSULTATION

Invitation for Comments – National Communications Authority Bill

October 16, 2025 – The National Communications Authority (NCA) intends to introduce the National Communications Authority Bill, 2025, to repeal and replace the existing National Communications Authority Act, 2008 (Act 769).

The purpose of this Bill is to:

- strengthen and modernise the regulatory and institutional framework for the effective administration, independence and accountability of Ghana's communications sector;
- ensure transparency, efficiency, and best regulatory practices in the management of communications networks, services, and resources;
- clarify and update the statutory functions, powers, and governance structures of the Authority;
- align the operations of the Authority with emerging trends in digitalisation, technological innovation, and international best practice; and
- enhance coordination between the Authority, Government, and other sectoral regulators to ensure policy coherence and efficient regulation of the communications ecosystem.

Pursuant to Section 27 of the Electronic Communications Act, 2008 (Act 775), Section 5(h) of the National Communications Authority Act, 2008 (Act 769) and Section 4.1 of the National Telecommunications Policy 2005 (NTP'05), the Authority hereby invites views and comments from licensed service providers, industry stakeholders, civil society organisations, consumers, and the general public on the National Communications Authority Bill, 2025.

The public consultation begins on 16th October, 2025 and shall expire on 29th October, 2025.

All responses/comments should be electronically transmitted as e-mail attachments, in Microsoft Word format to info@nca.org.gh .

All submissions must include a completed response cover sheet (refer to Page iii of the document).

We encourage respondents to specify the sections with which they agree or disagree.

In the interest of transparency, all responses will be considered non-confidential.

By submitting your response, you grant the NCA the right to use the copyright and any associated intellectual property contained in your submission to meet its legal obligations.

Following the conclusion of the public consultation, the NCA will finalise the National Communications Authority Bill, 2025

Download the Bill below....

National Communications Authority Bill docx

National Communications Authority

Airport City, Accra, Ghana

📍 GL-126-7029

✉ info@nca.org.gh

📞 +233 (0)302 776621/771701

Quick Links

Ministry of Communication, Digital Technology and Innovations

West Africa Telecommunications Regulators Assembly

International Telecommunication Union

African Telecommunication Union

Newsletter

Be the first to know about the latest updates, events, and more.

Your email

☐ I agree to receive occasional information from the NCA.

Subscribe